

in full bloom

Dear Fellow '87-ers,

With our 20th Wellesley reunion fast approaching, it is time to start compiling our Reunion Record Book.

Whether you plan to attend reunion or not, we would love an update on you and your whereabouts. This is a big one for us, so we hope that you will consider taking some time to send in a few paragraphs, (hopefully a photo or maybe even some artwork) on what you've been doing, what you've been thinking and where you're going. If a paragraph sounds daunting, a quick note or scribble will do. Your page can be as simple or as involved as you want it to be. We just want to hear from you, so please don't feel that you have to create a masterpiece. The goal here is to share your story, thoughts and insights as part of the ongoing history of our class.

Enclosed you will find a form for the Record Book Page and instructions on how to submit your page. You have the option of submitting your page electronically or completing and mailing the hard copy form provided with this letter. The cost of the Record Book will be $20, so please send us your order form and payment. Your deadline to submit a page is March 1, 2007.

As part of our effort to provide insight into the class of '87 culture and conscience, we are also asking you to take a moment to participate in an online class survey. To respond to the anonymous questionnaire, type in the following URL:

<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s.asp?u=54082582163>

The results will be tabulated and summarized in the Record Book.

Our job as Record Book Co-chairs is to convince you to participate, so please do! While perusing record books from prior reunions, we were struck by the many inspiring stories and different life paths that we, as a class, have taken. We wish we had known more of you at Wellesley!

We are looking forward to hearing from you and please feel free to contact any of us with questions or comments. Have fun with this and we'll see you at reunion!

Best Wishes,
