

EMILY GREENE BALCH SUMMER INTERNSHIP STIPEND
Sponsored by the Wellesley Class of 1950
Summer 2008

offered by the Peace and Justice Studies Program at Wellesley College

The Emily Greene Balch internship offers a stipend for a Wellesley student to carry out a summer project which analyzes the ways in which injustice is linked to conflict and which encourages the study of the relationship between peace, justice and social change. The following application, including the project description, resume and two letters of recommendation are due Friday, March 14, 2007. They should be addressed to the attention of: Peace & Justice Program co-director, Victor Kazanjian, and sent c/o The Office of Religious and Spiritual Life, Billings 204, paper or email applications are accepted.

APPLICATION FORM

Name: _____

Class: _____ Major/Minor: _____

Campus Address: _____ Campus Telephone: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Permanent Telephone: _____

Sponsoring Institution (if applicable): _____

Address: _____

Contact Person: _____

Telephone: _____

Please write an essay of approximately three pages (typed, double space) in which you discuss the following:

1. A description of the project that you hope to do with particular attention to the ways in which it addresses the following two criteria.
 - How does this project analyze the ways in which injustice is linked to conflict?
 - How does this project encourage an understanding of the relationship between peace, justice and social change?
2. The relationship the internship has on your vocational, academic and/or personal interests.
3. How the $3500 stipend would be used.
4. Previous related experience, both domestic and international

Please return completed application by 4:30 pm Friday, March 14, 2007 along with a resume, a copy of your transcript and two letters of recommendation to:
The Office of Religious Life, Billings Hall, Room 204
Late applications cannot be considered.