

CAMPUS CRIME ALERT

This is a Campus Security Notice intended for members of the Wellesley College community. Please help us distribute this information by emailing this notice to friends and colleagues or by posting it on bulletin boards located throughout the campus.

On July 6, 2006 at approximately 3:00 pm, a resident of Cedar Lodge encountered a suspicious male inside the residence. The male stated that he was looking for the Wellesley College “Office” and then left the area. The suspect is described as a white male, approximately in his late 30’s, medium build, about 5’10”, light or reddish hair, wearing white pants, a white t-shirt and a white cap.

Anyone who may have seen this suspect or has any information pertaining to this incident, please call the Wellesley College Police Department immediately.

Please take time to review these important safety and security tips:

1. We recommend that you always walk with a partner.
2. Consider carrying a cell phone programmed with our emergency number (781-283-5555).
3. Stay alert at all times. The more aware you are, the less vulnerable you are.
4. If you see a person or witness activity that you consider suspicious, call us immediately at x5555 or use a Blue Light emergency phone.
5. Avoid unpopulated areas, deserted streets, and overgrown trails. Especially avoid poorly lighted areas at night.
6. Trust your intuition about a person or an area. React based on your intuition and avoid areas you feel unsure of.
