Postbaccalaureate Program

Each year Wellesley College opens its doors to a group of highly qualified men and women who have special needs for nondegree course work. Candidates for this program are graduates of an accredited college or university who wish to do further undergraduate course work to prepare for graduate studies, make a career change, or experience personal enrichment. Wellesley College does not provide financial aid or campus housing to Postbaccalaureate students.

Application Procedures

The application deadlines for the Postbaccalaureate Study Program are November 15 for spring semester and March 1 for fall semester. Notification from the Board of Admission will be mailed in mid December for spring semester and by early April for fall admission. No application will be considered until all materials listed below are received.

Application for Admission: The application should be completed as early as possible before the deadline dates and returned with a $50 application fee to the Board of Admission.

College Transcripts: Please submit official transcripts from all colleges and universities you have attended or at which you are currently enrolled.

Recommendations: Please send a recommendation form to each person you have listed as a reference on the application. Academic references are the most helpful for the Board of Admission. Two recommendations are required.

Interview: A personal interview is required for all applicants. Please call the Board of Admission to make an appointment for the interview at least two months before the admission deadline. An alumna interview can be arranged for applicants living outside the New England area.

High School Transcript and SAT Scores: Applicants who are applying for premedical studies are required to submit a high school transcript and their SAT scores. ACT test results may be sent in place of SAT scores.

International Students: If English is not your first language, you must submit TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) scores as part of your application. A high level of fluency in all areas of English language – including reading, writing and speaking – is required of all applicants, since Wellesley does not offer courses in intensive English or in English as a Second Language (ESL). All foreign credentials must be translated into English and certified as accurate translations.

Fees: The current costs for the Postbaccalaureate Study Program are located on the Student Financial Services website at www.wellesley.edu/SFS/StudentAccounts.html

Postbaccalaureate students are not eligible for financial assistance from Wellesley College.
