

Recommended Four-Year Calendar

For links to topics below visit: www.wellesley.edu/CWS/students/fouryearcalendar.html

First Year –Orientation and Discovery

- Visit the CWS - 4th floor Green Hall.
- Register with MyCWS.
- Volunteer for your favorite organization.
- Explore internship options.
- Start to define your career with self-assessment.

Drop-In Sessions:
M–F, 12:30–2pm and
Tuesday evenings from 4:30–6pm*

*Evening hours available when classes are in session

Sophomore Year –Career Exploration

- Update your MyCWS account.
- Find out what you can do with your major.
- Volunteer at a company or organization in an area of interest.
- Register with the W Network to learn career information from alumnae.
- Create your own shadow opportunity.
- Apply for funded internship opportunities or a summer stipend.
- If you are going abroad, meet with a CWS counselor before you leave.

Junior Year –Experiential Learning

- Continue with self-assessment.
- Present at the Tanner Conference.
- Identify internship and summer stipend options.
- Investigate graduate or professional schools.
- Learn how to market your international experience.
- Discover fellowship opportunities, including Rhodes, Marshall, Mitchell, Watson, and Fulbright.

Senior Year – Synthesis

- Attend the CWS Senior Picnic.
- Clarify your career direction.
- Meet with a CWS counselor.
- Research potential career fields and employers.
- Review the job search process.
- Sharpen your networking and interviewing skills.
- Plan for graduate or professional school.

As an Alumna

- The Center for Work and Service is here for you as a lifelong resource.