Support and Reporting Options for Students Who Have Experienced Sexual Misconduct

For more information including relevant policies, visit wellesley.edu/titleix

Do you want to seek medical attention?

- Yes
- No/Unsure

Do you want to talk to someone?

- Yes
- No/Unsure

Do you want to report it to the College?

- Yes
- No/Unsure

CONFIDENTIAL

Medical Resources:
Health Service
781-283-2810
Simpson 1st Floor
Speak with a clinician, who can offer options, explain any time-sensitive medical responses, and assist you in accessing medical care for injuries, pregnancy prevention, STI prevention, and/or collection of forensic evidence.

CONFIDENTIAL
Anonymous Reporting:
You can submit an anonymous report to Campus Police online.

REPORTING OPTIONS

ADMINISTRATIVE OPTION
Title IX Coordinator
781-283-2451
Schneider 214

CRIMINAL OPTION
Campus Police
Emergency: 781-283-5555
Non-emergency: 781-283-2121
Davis Parking Facility

Non Confidential Resources:
Many Wellesley offices offer support and accommodations including:
- Dean of Students
- Residential Life
- Class Deans

Peer Resource:
Sexual Assault Awareness for Everyone (SAAFE)
saafe@wellesley.edu

CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

ON CAMPUS
Stone Center Counseling
781-283-2839 | Simpson 2nd Floor
Health Service
781-283-2810 | Simpson 1st Floor
Office of Religious & Spiritual Life
781-283-2685 | Billings 2nd Floor

OFF CAMPUS
Boston Area Rape Crisis Center (BARCC)
24-hour hotline: 800-841-8371
REACH Against Domestic Violence
24-hour hotline: 800-899-4000

NATIONAL
RAINN (Rape & Incest National Network)
24-hour hotline: 800-656-4673

INTERNATIONAL
Wellesley College Travel Assist Program
ACE/ EuropAssistance
1-202-659-7803
Sexual Assault Support and Help for Americans Abroad
1-866 USWOMEN (879-6636)

Sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking, is prohibited and will not be tolerated by Wellesley. Wellesley is committed to providing a safe environment in which all students can thrive as they pursue their educational goals.

Developed by Jess Abramson,’19 and the Office of Health Education, and the Office of Title IX/Nondiscrimination Initiatives