Welcome and Opening Remarks: Educating Women for Global Leadership (8:30–9:15 a.m.)

- Ministry of Education Official
- President Wang Enge, Peking University
- President H. Kim Bottomly, Wellesley College
Hosted by Li Yansong, Vice President, Peking University

Session I: Giving Voice to Women’s Leadership (9:15–9:50 a.m.)
Yang Lan, Media Entrepreneur
Hosted by Mei-Mei Tuan, Partner, Notch Partners, LLC
Q&A with the audience

Break (9:50–10:05 a.m.)

Session 2: Navigating the Path to Leadership (10:05–11:00 a.m.)
Pam Melroy, former Astronaut for the U.S. and Liu Yang, Astronaut for China
Hosted by Kris de Juniac, former Managing Director, Boston Consulting Group
Q&A with the audience

Session 3: Facing Leadership Challenges (11:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.)
Panel moderated by Mona Locke, TV Journalist
Q&A with the audience
- Wu Qing, Legislator and Educator
- Sarah O’Donnell, CEO, Hong Kong Seibu Enterprises
- Lin Tianmiao, Contemporary Artist

Lunch Break (12:00–1:15 p.m.)

Session 4: Story Tables—Understanding Leadership through the Stories of Women Leaders (1:15–2:15 p.m.) Hosted by Susan Harmon, former Managing Director, Public Radio Capital

Story Table leaders will share personal stories to stimulate an exchange about leadership among the women at each table. This mutual sharing should generate discussion of the challenges faced by women in—or seeking—leadership roles. Discussion will include where leaders find inspiration, the ethics of leadership, and the value of and approaches to mentoring. In addition to the Story Table leaders, there will be at least one student at each table. The session ends with the presentation of an important idea from each table discussion.

Please check website for the most up-to-date information.

www.wellesley.edu/wwp
Session 5: Creating Solutions to Global Problems—the Power of the Liberal Arts
(2:15–3:15 p.m.) Hosted by Caroline Cai, Christie’s Managing Director, China
Q&A with the audience
• Madame Wu Qidi, former Vice Minister, Ministry of Education
• Shirley Young, former Corporate Vice President, General Motors
• Yuan Ming, Director, Institute of International Relations, Peking University
• Joseph Joyce, Faculty Director, Madeline Korbel Albright Institute for Global Affairs

Tea Break (3:15–3:30 p.m.)

Session 6: New Learning for a New World (3:30–4:15 p.m.)
Featuring the Wellesley and Peking University next-generation leaders
Hosted by Joanne Murray, Director of the Madeline Korbel Albright Institute for Global Affairs
Q&A with the audience

Session 7: Making a World-Changing Difference (4:15–5:00 p.m.)
Hu Shuli, Founder of Caixin Media and Hsueh-ming Wang, Chairman of China, BlackRock
Hosted by Alison Chung, President and Founder of Teamwerks
Q&A with the audience

Break and Travel to Diaoyutai

Gala Dinner at Diaoyutai (6:00–8:30 p.m.)
Welcome by President Wang Enge, Peking University and Kim Bottomly, President of Wellesley College
Introduction by Gary Locke, U.S. Ambassador
• Dinner Keynote: A Vision for Women’s Leadership
  Chen Zhili, Vice Chairman, 11th Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress
• Musical Performance: Tan Dun, the Academy-Award winning composer, presents an excerpt from his latest multimedia work, Nu Shu: The Secret Songs of Women Symphony