Registration Fee

The non-refundable registration fee, combined with the Alumnae Association’s substantial subsidy, help make Reunion weekend possible. There is no registration fee for children younger than 5 years. If you are registering any guest(s) for only one meal, and they are not staying overnight on campus, there is no registration fee charge for them. (Other fees, such as meals, are refundable up until May 11. After May 11, no refunds will be given.) After May 11, meal and room availability is extremely limited and not guaranteed. Register early!

On-Campus Housing
(includes breakfast)
Alumnae and guests who wish to stay on campus during Reunion weekend must pay the registration fee plus the cost of housing. The cost includes towels, linens, a blanket, a pillow, and breakfast. Each class is assigned to a residence hall. We will attempt to accommodate all rooming requests. Although on-campus housing is guaranteed to all alumnae, housing within your specific headquarters is not. Room assignments will be made on a first-come, first-served basis. In case your headquarters is oversubscribed, you will be placed in the nearest possible dormitory to your class. See enclosed brochure for area hotel information.

Class Insignia
The class insignia is a 16” x 72” scarf of white Charmeuse silk printed with a radiating sun on both ends designed by Laura Grosch ’67.

Required Class Fee
The Class Fee will help defray various class Reunion expenses.

For disability accommodation requests, please call 781.283.2321 or email reunionquestions@wellesley.edu at least 2 weeks in advance to give us time to review and respond to your needs.

Wellesley Centers for Women

Here is some interesting background about the Wellesley Centers for Women and the important connection it has with our class.

The Sunshine Class has always had a very special relationship with the Wellesley Centers for Women. As most of you know, the family of our classmate Kathy Stone Kaufmann founded the Stone Center, which merged with the Center for Research on Women in 1995 to become the Wellesley Centers for Women.

WCW is the largest social science organization in the United States dedicated to gender research—a nationally-known center that advances gender equality, social justice and human wellbeing through research, theory and action programs. Areas of focus include education and childcare, society and leadership, youth and adolescent development, mental health, economic security, and gender-based violence. Join us to learn about the ways in which WCW is helping to change the world for women and their families, in this country and around the world.

In 1991, at the time of our 25th reunion, our Class funded a named internship at WCW. Each year for the past 25 years, a Wellesley student has become the Class of ’67 Intern at the Centers, working alongside a researcher to gain valuable knowledge and skills that enhance her undergraduate experience and often influence her career choice. Donations to the Class of ’67 Internship Fund are warmly welcomed and count toward College and reunion giving and Durant status.
