SEVIS Fee Facts & Instructions

The Department of Homeland Security collects a congressionally mandated fee to cover the costs for the continued operation of the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP). International students and exchange visitors are subject to this fee which will be used to administer and maintain the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS), support compliance activities, and establish SEVIS Liaison Officers. Below is a summary of SEVIS Fee information, for more detailed information please visit http://www.ice.gov/sevis/i901/index.htm or call (212) 620-3418.

Who pays the fee?
- Those who wish to enter the United States either as F-1 students or J-1 exchange visitors
- Those who are in the United States in another immigration status and want to change to F-1 or J-1 status
- Continuing F-1 students:
  - Filing an application for reinstatement when they have been out of status for more than 5 months
  - When applying for a new visa or returning to the United States after an absence of more than 5 months that did not involve authorized overseas study
  - When filing an application for a change of status to an F, M, or J classification except for changes between F-1 and F-3 or between M-1 and M-3.
- Continuing J-1 exchange visitors:
  - Filing a reinstatement application after a substantive violation
  - Filing a reinstatement application after they have been out of status between 121 and 269 days
  - Applying for a change of exchange visitor category unless the new exchange visitor category is fee exempt (federally sponsored programs with program codes that start with G-1, G-2, or G-3)

Exemptions from the Fee:
- Continuing F-1 and J-1 students will not be subject to the fee.
- J-1 visa holders who are participants of federally sponsored exchange visitor programs, which are designated by program codes beginning with G-1, G-2, or G-3 are not subject to this fee.
- Spouses and dependent children (F-2, M-2) of students or exchange visitors (J-2) are not subject to the fee.

When must the fee be paid?
The fee must be paid at least three business days prior to the visa interview date, entry date or change of status application to ensure that the payment can be deposited and recorded in SEVIS prior to the scheduled visa interview, entry to the U.S. or filing of change of status application. The immigration officer will confirm that the fee has been paid by accessing SEVIS.

- Applicants who require a visa to enter the United States must pay the SEVIS fee before going to the U.S. embassy or consulate for their visa interview. It is recommended that the fee be paid at least 3 business days before the embassy or consulate interview.
• Applicants who are citizens of Canada, Bermuda, Bahamas and residents of certain other islands (see 8 CFR 212.1a) wishing to apply for F-1, F-3, M-1, M-3, or J-1 status at a Port of Entry into the United States must pay and process the SEVIS fee BEFORE appearing at the Port of Entry. It is recommended that the fee be paid at least 3 business days before entering the port of entry.

• Nonimmigrants currently in the United States who apply for student or exchange visitor status must pay the fee prior to filing their change of status application.

Pilot Program
There will be pilot programs at Embassies in CHINA and INDIA where the fee is paid ON LOCATION.
