

WELLESLEY COLLEGE

MAIL SERVICES

Summer 2013

Dear Incoming First Year Students, Transfer Students, and Davis Scholars,

We are looking forward to your arrival on campus in August. Listed below is information about mailing letters and packages to campus.

Enclosed you will find:

- A letter describing how student mail should be addressed to campus.
- A sample of the proper address format for future reference.
- A list of Zip+4's for the student unit mailbox numbers.

Attached you will find:

- Eight orange shipping labels to be used to ship your packages using our special back to school package program.

Mail Services has made special arrangements with the United Parcel Service for delivery of packages directly to the residence halls for the opening of school. During the academic year all packages are delivered to the Campus Center Mail Service for pick up by students.

The earliest arrival date for packages will be August 27, 2013. If packages arrive before August 23rd they may be returned to sender.

Your Unit number and combination will be sent to you by email. Please bring your combination when you come to campus. Mail Services is located on the second floor of the Wang Campus Center.

Mail Services is open Monday – Friday 10:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. for package pick up and 10:00 a.m. -3:00 p.m. for retail mailing services for items weighing up to 10 pounds. Student Mail Services also provides FedEx shipment for letters domestic and international.

Please stop by to see us when you arrive.

Sincerely,

Frances E. Adams

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION ABOUT MAIL ON CAMPUS

1. How should mail be addressed to me at Wellesley College?

This address format is recommended by the U.S. Postal Service.

Jane S. Wellesley
Unit XXYY
21 Wellesley College Road
Wellesley MA 02481-02XX

Zip + 4 code is very important to insure proper delivery.

2. How can I prevent my mail from being delayed?

Use your proper name and avoid the use of nick names. Use your middle initial when ever possible and notify Mail Services of any name changes. Be sure to use the proper address format and zip + 4 code.

3. Where will packages be delivered after September 8th?

All student packages will be delivered to the Student Mail Center located in the Wang Campus Center after September 8th 2006.

4. How will I be notified if I have a package or item that requires a signature?

Student Mail Services will email your First Class email account notifying you that you have an item that requires a signature at Student Mail Service.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS
FOR
UPS PACKAGE SHIPMENTS MADE IN AUGUST ONLY

UPS will deliver your packages directly to your residence hall if addressed with this label.

This one time delivery service to residence halls was arranged for your convenience to eliminate the need to carry heavy packages from the Student Mail Center at the Wang Campus Center to your residence hall.

Please do not ship to your unit number. Packages address to unit numbers will have to be hand carried to your resident hall.

Put your daughter's Unit (mailbox) number and zip +4 codes in the appropriate space and save for future use.
This will be her mailing address for her entire time at Wellesley College.
