

Example Budget 1

Expense Item	Cost
Princeton Review Self-Paced GRE Prep	$299 (normally $399, but reduced by $100 using Career Education's Princeton Review discount)
GRE test fee (includes sending test scores to four graduate programs)	$102 (normally $205, but reduced by 50% because I applied for and received a GRE Fee Reduction Voucher)
Additional GRE score reports (because I anticipate applying to 6 schools in total)	$27 x 2 = $54
TOTAL	$455
Amount requested and brief explanation	Because my upcoming graduate school-related costs total just over $400 with discounts and fee reductions, I am requesting the full $400.

Example Budget 2

Expense Item	Cost
Adobe Creative Cloud subscription to create a portfolio of creative work that I will use when applying for full time visual design roles during my upcoming senior year.	$239.88 (annual student subscription rate)
TOTAL	$239.88
Amount requested and brief explanation	I am requesting $239.88, which will cover access to all the Adobe programs I need (InDesign, Photoshop, and Illustrator) to build my portfolio.

Example Budget 3

Expense Item	Cost
MCAT Registration	$320
Medical School - Primary Application	$170 for first school and $41 each for 17 additional schools = $867
Medical School - Secondary Application	Ranges from $85-200 depending on the school x 17 schools = $2,422 (mid-point)
TOTAL	$3,289
Amount requested and brief explanation	Because my upcoming medical school application costs add up to over $3,000, I am requesting the full $400.

Example Budget 4

Expense Item	Cost
William & Mary Law School 3-day online summer course, "Intro to Artificial Intelligence & the Law" (July 12-14)	$290
TOTAL	$290
Amount requested and brief explanation	I am requesting $290 because that will cover all expenses related to this course. No scholarships are available through William & Mary.

Example Budget 5

Expense Item	Cost
I am planning to apply for finance internships in summer 2022 and would like to improve my financial modeling with software provided by Wall Street Prep entitled Learn Financial & Valuation Modeling Premium Package	$499
TOTAL	$499
Amount requested and brief explanation	Because the software package is $499 I am requesting the full $400.
