

Driving Directions to Wellesley College

- Wellesley College's mailing address is: 106 Central St., Wellesley, MA, 02481. However, if you are using a GPS device see below for appropriate addresses to enter.
- The College lies at the intersection of Central Street, (also called Route 135) and Washington Street (also called Route 16), just west of the center of the town of Wellesley. There is a pedestrian entrance here.
- For the main vehicle entrance, continue 0.5 miles and turn left into the College at the next set of lights. (Google Maps shows the main entrance at roughly 200 Central Street.) You will now be on College Road. The Davis Parking Facility will be to your immediate right. Keep driving on College Road if you are going to the Admission Office.

Note: The Davis Parking Facility is the most convenient parking option if you are attending a major visit program like Discover Wellesley or Junior Open Campus, as it is near registration locations. If you are going to the Admission Office, stay on College Road and follow signs to Admission Parking (Dower Lot).

- College Road is the major road that runs through campus (1.0 miles total) from Central Street (Route 135) to Washington Street (Route 16.) There is an additional vehicle entrance at the Route 16 end of campus. (This entrance is closer to the Admission Office and the College Club.)

Visitor Parking Information

(Parking is free at all locations)

Program Parking: If you are attending one of our large visit programs, you may park in the Davis Parking Facility, immediately to the right after the main entrance (by Route 135) on College Road. Program registration is typically at either the Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center or Diana Chapman Walsh Alumnae Hall, both of which are nearby.

(For some of our very large visit programs in the spring, there will also be clearly marked signs along College Road indicating additional parking areas on the grass.)

Admission Office: If you are visiting the Admission Office, follow the signs along College Road to the Admission parking lot, located at Dower Hall. The Admission Office/Weaver House is right across the street on the hill.

If you are coming from the Central Street (Route 135) entrance, the parking lot will be 0.6 miles on your left and the Admission Office will be on your right.

If you are coming from the Washington Street (Route 16) entrance, the parking lot will be 0.3 miles on your right and the Admission Office will be on your left.

If you are unable to find a parking space in the (rather small) Dower Hall parking lot, please park in the Davis Parking Facility by the main College entrance (by Route 135). The walking distance between the Davis Parking Facility and Weaver House is approximately 15 minutes.

Handicapped parking spaces are available next to the entrance of the Admission Office.

Parking Questions: If you have any questions about parking, please go to the Campus Police office, located in the Davis Parking Facility.
