Jane Alexander

Adventurous Tales of Wildlife and Conservation on Planet Earth

Photo: Cheryl Grant

Actress Jane Alexander is also a lifelong environmental activist, passionate about wildlife conservation. She has traveled to some of the world's most remote and forbidding places with scientists focused on helping endangered species to stay alive and thrive, and this moving memoir shows her keen grasp of the issues. "The force of the book resides in the author's articulation of her exhilaration of the wonders of nature." (Publishers Weekly) Jane Alexander is former chairperson of the National Endowment for the Arts, multiple Academy Award nominee, and Tony Award and Emmy Award-winning actress.

WILD THINGS, WILD PLACES:

Sebastian Smee

Four Friendships, Betrayals, and Breakthroughs in Modern Art

Photo: Pat Greenhouse

Pulitzer Prize-winning art critic Sebastian Smee of The Boston Globe turns our attention to four key relationships in the history of modern art—Manet and Degas, Picasso and Matisse, Pollock and de Kooning, Freud and Bacon – in which conflicted, competitive friendships spurred the artists to new creative heights. The Art of Rivalry has been hailed as "a fresh and fruitful approach to art history . . . the double portraits are deeply moving, even haunting" (Publishers Weekly starred review) and "gripping...Smee's skills as a critic are evident throughout. He is persuasive and vivid..." (NY Times)

THE ART OF RIVALRY:

Willard Spiegelman

Willard Spiegelman draws on more than six decades of his esteemed career as a writer and professor to reflect with both humor and sophistication on the process of aging. He celebrates the pleasures of reading, looking at art, talking, and indulging in occasional fits of nostalgia. The essays have been praised as "lucid and propulsive" (Kirkus Reviews) by "an agreeable, wise and witty companion -- edifying, fun and fearless." (Dallas Morning News) Willard Spiegelman is the Hughes Professor of English at Southern Methodist University and a regular contributor to The Wall Street Journal.

SENIOR MOMENTS:

Looking Back, Looking Ahead

Bring a friend and stay for lunch!

The Wellesley College Club presents a special buffet lunch for $16.00 per person, including tax and gratuity. Advance reservations are required. For reservations, please call the Wellesley College Club directly at 781-283-2700 and mention that you are attending Authors on Stage.

Fill your morning with engaging presentations by three authors, and learn how they came to write their recently published books. The authors will autograph copies of their books — available for purchase at a discount.

Please return your reservation form and check for $27 per person to the address on the form. Reservations will be held at the door. Supply us with your email address and we will email you a reservation confirmation. Sorry, no refunds.
