Adapted from the work of Seth Carrier-Ladd

Libbet Dunlop Richter '66,
Reunion Co-Chair

Wind that whispers through the willow trees
Sun that sustains us
Water that washes over willing earth and weathered stones
Come, let us gather.

A smile shared and savored
A squeal of delight as we dance in the daisies and daffodils
The quiet joy of gathered community
Come, let us gather.

This, this is the spirit of life and love that we call forth now into this gathering
May this spirit infuse our hearts and fill our souls as we enter into this sacred time and space of remembrance as we celebrate the life and legacies of our beloved friends.
Come, let us gather.

sun and moon and stars of light:

A Navajo Prayer

Sarah Stoker '66, Interfaith Minister

In beauty may I walk
All day long may I walk
Through the returning seasons may I walk
Beautifully will I possess again
Beautifully birds,
Beautifully joyful birds
On the trail marked with pollen may I walk
With grasshoppers about my feet may I walk
With dew about my feet may I walk
With beauty may I walk
With beauty before me may I walk
With beauty behind me may I walk
With beauty above me may I walk
With beauty all around me may I walk
In old age, wandering on a trail of beauty, lively, may I walk
In old age, wandering on a trail of beauty, living again, may I walk
It is finished in beauty.
It is finished in beauty.

Reading

1 Corinthians 12:31–13:8

The Rev. Karen Lebacqz '66

And yet I will show you the most excellent way. If I speak in the tongues of humans or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.

Kaddish Translation

Exalted and hallowed be God's great name in the world which God created, according to plan.
May God's majesty be revealed in the days of our lifetime and the life of all Israel—speedily, imminently, to which we say Amen.
Blessed be God's great name to all eternity.
Blessed, praised, honored, exalted, extolled, glorified, adored, and lauded be the name of the Holy Blessed One, beyond all earthly words and songs of blessing, praise, and comfort. To which we say Amen.
May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life, for us and all Israel,
to which we say Amen.
May the One who creates harmony on high, bring peace to us and to all Israel.
To which we say Amen.

Benediction

A Benediction for Parting by Anonymous

The Rev. Gail Carlsen '66

We must not part, as others do,
With sighs and tears, as we were two,
Though with these outward forms, we part;
We keep each other in our heart.
What search hath found a being, where
I am not, if that thou be there?

True love hath wings, and can as soon
Survey the world, as sun and moon;
And everywhere our triumphs keep
Over absence, which makes others weep:
By which alone, a power is given
To live on earth, as they live in heaven.

Amen.
