ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Reunion weekend is sponsored by the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA), but it represents a collaborative and coordinated effort on the part of the WCAA and the College. We would like to thank everyone involved in making Reunion possible—we simply could not host this event without them. Our profound gratitude goes to the faculty and staff who have generously given their time to enrich the Reunion program. In addition, the WCAA is indebted to the hundreds of alumnae volunteers who deliver programs and activities with generous contributions of their time, talent, leadership, and expertise every year.

Dear Alumna,

Welcome to Reunion 2018! We are so happy to have you—and more than 3,000 other graduates, guests, and family members—back on campus. This is my second Wellesley Reunion as president, and I am very much looking forward to seeing you and taking in the joy, energy, and excitement that Reunion weekend brings.

Over the past two years, I have had the pleasure of meeting alumnae from around the world who have taught me about Wellesley's many traditions, shared stories about how Wellesley has shaped them, and told me their hopes for the College's future. All of these inspiring conversations showed me the unwavering support alumnae have for the College and its mission. I look forward to many more such discussions this weekend.

The Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) has worked hard to create a robust slate of programs for you, including multiclass social events, faculty lectures on current topics of interest (including the #MeToo movement and racial justice), a workshop on investing in personal growth and career development, and an interdepartmental academic open house. You will find information about all of the events in these pages. And please join me for the Alumnae Association's annual meeting on Saturday at 11 am.

Your decision to return for Reunion shows how much you value your connections to Wellesley. This weekend, I encourage you to find new ways to reconnect with the College, the faculty, classmates, and friends, and most importantly, to celebrate all that makes Wellesley the special place—and powerful community—it is. As you enjoy being back on this lovely campus, surrounded by friends, I hope the memories and relationships you create will inspire you to join us for many more Reunions to come.

Warm regards,

Paula A. Johnson
President

On behalf of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA), I am thrilled to welcome you back to campus!

The WCAA’s mission—to connect alumnae to the College and to each other—is fully realized at Reunion. Whether you are celebrating your 5th or 80th, we hope you reconnect with all that is Wellesley. There is a wide range of programs planned for you: from stimulating faculty lectures to in-depth tours, from yoga to a walk (or run!) around the lake, from Stepsinging to academic open houses.

We encourage you to take the time to visit some of the campus renewal initiatives that have been completed since your last Reunion. On pages 6-9 of this program, we’ve added a “What’s New for You?” section that highlights all of these incredible changes. For example, Pendleton West was finished in 2017 and features beautiful new art studios and a large music hall with superb acoustics. It is well worth a visit. Other major renovations include Schneider Center, which provides inviting space for several student services offices; the Field House, offering a fabulous new fitness mezzanine; and the Butler Boathouse, reopened in 2015 as a brighter, more accessible, and more functional building.

Join us for the WCAA annual meeting, now scheduled for Saturday at 11 am, where we will celebrate class milestones and notable alumnae. The annual meeting will also afford us a special opportunity to hear from President Paula A. Johnson.

Reunion would not be possible without the hard work, commitment, and enthusiasm of your class volunteers. The WCAA board of directors and I extend our heartfelt thanks to all of these dedicated alumnae; you can find their names listed on your class website. Please thank them for their hard work and dedication to bringing your class together for this special weekend.

Whether you participate in several programs or simply enjoy the beauty of our campus and deepen long-standing friendships, we hope you enjoy Reunion 2018. It’s going to be a wonderful weekend. We’re happy you’re here!

Sincerely,

Georgia Murphy Johnson ’75
President, Board of Directors, Wellesley College Alumnae Association
WHAT’S NEW ON CAMPUS?

Explore the new additions and renovations that have taken place since you were here for Reunion 2013!

In 2015, the Boathouse underwent a comprehensive renovation thanks to the generosity of Alice Lehmann Butler ’53. The renovations included creating a new main entry, prep room, canoe/kayak room, storage, and improved shop space.

In 2016, the Davis Museum unveiled the Davis. ReDiscovered, a total transformation of the Davis permanent collections galleries, reshaped and reconceived to present the breadth and strength of the Museum’s encyclopedic holdings.

Pendleton West was renovated in 2016-2017 to create connections between the disciplines of media, arts, and sciences. The new space includes art studios, music performance spaces, and common areas.

In 2016, the Davis Museum unveiled the Davis. ReDiscovered, a total transformation of the Davis permanent collections galleries, reshaped and reconceived to present the breadth and strength of the Museum’s encyclopedic holdings.

Harambee House, which has served students of African descent since 1970, received repairs and upgrades to the lower level in 2016 including an expanded den with study tables, a new conference room, and an updated kitchen with new appliances and countertop seating.

Schneider Center’s newly renovated space, now housing student services offices, offers fresh contemporary spaces while retaining its soaring windows and beautiful wooden trusses.

Acorns, renovated in 2016, is a multicultural space for students of Latinx and Asian descent. The midcentury modern building is situated near the water, offering lovely views of Lake Waban. It houses faculty advisor offices, meeting spaces, and cooking/gathering areas.

East Side Campus renovations offer inviting spots for social gatherings. Freeman and McAfee Halls re-purposed existing spaces including the living rooms and outdoor courtyard. In addition, the WCAA donated a fire pit in the McAfee Courtyard in honor of College President H. Kim Bottomly.

WHAT’S NEW TO REUNION PROGRAMMING?

The 138th Annual Meeting of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association will take place on Saturday at 11:00 AM in Alumnae Hall Auditorium. Don’t miss President Paula A. Johnson’s State of the College address!

Join us on Friday, 4:30-5:30 PM for an hour of networking and community building with Career Education. We will update you on Wellesley’s new mentorship platform, The Wellesley Hive – your gateway to the most powerful women’s network in the world. See page 18 for more details.

On Saturday from 3:30-5:00 PM, come to Harambee House for the Shared Interest Group (SIG) and Affinity Open House. Meet directors of various student affinity groups, and then connect with alumnae across classes at SIG and affinity gatherings at Harambee House, 200 Billings, and Acorns. See page 28 for more details.

Take advantage of our second Campus-wide Academic Open House on Saturday, 3:00-4:30 PM in Clapp Library, and visit with professors from over 15 different departments. See page 28 for the full list of participating departments.

Sunday Celebration: In Gratitude and Remembrance, a multi-faith service open to all, celebrates the blessings of our Wellesley community, past, present, and future.

Immediately following the Alumnae Parade on Sunday morning, join us as we end Reunion on a “high-note” with Stepsinging in Alumnae Hall Hay Outdoor Theatre!
Every dollar raised, door opened, and life touched by Wellesley College can be directly attributed to our community of caring and inspiring donors. In celebration of your generosity, we are delighted to present a special pin to wear attached to your name badge. We salute you!

If you’ve been waiting to make your gift during Reunion, please make your gift today, and ask your class Wellesley Fund representative or inquire at your class headquarters for a special pin to recognize your support for the College.

Every gift—of every size—to The Wellesley Fund is a gift to the campaign and is dedicated to advancing the Wellesley Effect.

FACULTY LECTURE
The College Hall Fire: Learning about a Century of Daily Life at Wellesley through Archaeology
Elizabeth Minor, Mellon Post-Doctoral Fellow in Anthropology
Founders Hall East 339 (seating is limited)
The Wellesley College Hall Archaeology Project seeks evidence of daily lives of the Wellesley community, circa 1914. Students excavate in areas containing remnants of the 1914 College Hall Fire, which destroyed the original College building overnight, and have found fragments of belongings and architecture over 100 years later. They also search through the College Archives for insights from historical letters and photographs. The research project is driven by the principles of community-based participatory research, where students work together to identify research questions about experiences of the Wellesley community (daily life, gender, social class) and address issues resonating with students today. The first round of excavation and research moved three tons of dirt and uncovered clues about how students spent their free time, studied for classes, and viewed the world around them. Excavation will continue during June (MTW 9-12), and alumnae are welcome to come by the Tower Court courtyard to visit and share their own experiences and questions. Email Dr. Minor at eminor@wellesley.edu with questions or to confirm times.

FACULTY LECTURE
The Albright Institute for Global Affairs: Global Issues from a Multidisciplinary Perspective
Takis Metaxas, Faculty Director, Madeleine Korbel Albright Institute for Global Affairs; Professor of Computer Science
Rebecca Gordan ’01, Assistant Director, Madeleine Korbel Albright Institute for Global Affairs
Julie Walsh, Faculty Scholar, Madeleine Korbel Albright Institute for Global Affairs; Assistant Professor of Philosophy
Founders Hall 120 (seating is limited)
The Albright Institute was founded on the principle that a liberal arts education provides the ideal preparation to tackle the world’s most pressing challenges. Each year, the Institute selects Wellesley student Fellows from across all disciplines to participate in a Wintersession program focused on collaborative problem-solving. This program has two central components: expert lectures intended to expose students to social, political, and moral issues that intersect with current events, and group projects that focus on identifying solutions to complex global issues, such as climate change and cybersecurity. The Albright Institute’s blog, The Spoke, similarly aims to bring voices from across the disciplines into public conversations on matters of global importance by publishing short, accessible essays from a wide variety of perspectives. Albright Fellows will be on hand to share their experiences. Join the conversation on the modern relevance of the liberal arts perspective! *Please note that Secretary Albright will not be a part of this panel.

FACULTY LECTURE
Technological Disruption and the Future of Work
Dan Sichel, Professor of Economics
Pendleton East 339 (seating is limited)
What jobs will be displaced in coming decades by robots/artificial intelligence/other new technologies? What are the economic implications of these changes and what choices will be faced by policymakers and our society?

FACULTY LECTURE
Wellesley Centers for Women Panel: Sexual Assault and Reaching #Nevermore
Layli Maparyan, Ph.D., Katherine Stone Kaufmann ’67 Executive Director of WCW
Linda Williams, Ph.D., Director of the Justice and Gender Based Violence Research Initiative at WCW
Jewett Auditorium (seating is limited)
The Aftermath of Rape, which Linda Williams, Ph.D., published in 1979, reported a very high level of sexual violence case attrition—that is, many sexual assault reports made to the police were never followed up and few were prosecuted. In the past 40 years in the U.S., while there has been progress in societal and justice system response to sexual assault, recent research confirms that most reports of rape of a child, an adolescent, college-aged women, or an adult do not result in prosecution. Many victims still do not find enough support from families, friends, or our social institutions. After four decades of advocacy for victims of sexual assault we must once again ask: What is justice and how do we achieve it?

FACULTY LECTURE
Inclusive Computer Security and Privacy
Ada Lerner, Assistant Professor of Computer Science
Collins Cinema (seating is limited)
Technology promises us many things: the freedom to express ourselves, the opportunity to meet diverse people, the resources to explore challenging ideas, and the capability to communicate openly with the whole world. However, it will only fulfill these promises if we continuously work to ensure that our technology is secure and privacy preserving, able to support these critical and sensitive uses without harming people more than it helps them. In this talk, Professor Lerner will focus on the computer security and privacy experiences and needs of two types of people: people in roles of profound importance to our free society, and people from marginalized backgrounds who may be most vulnerable. In particular, she will discuss the security and privacy of several groups, including lawyers, journalists, refugees, and LGBTQ folks, who have been subjects of her recent research. In that work, Professor Lerner has examined how these groups differ from each other and from the general population in terms of their security and privacy needs, behaviors, and desires, and at how we might understand and design technology so that it can better serve all people in society.
Come hear Professor Wolfson give her final lecture before her retirement from Wellesley. Liberal arts colleges produce a disproportionate number of PhDs in the sciences. Drawing on interview data from the New England Consortium on Assessment and Student Learning, a collaboration of selective liberal arts colleges, we have examined how students integrate content and skills between science and non-science courses. The benefits are most notable for those who make deep and conscious connections among fields of study.

3:00—5:00 PM
Tours of Pendleton West
Begins at the Botanic Gardens’ Visitor Center
Walking Tour
The Botanic Gardens have some exciting research gardens that are engaging students in multiple ways. Visit the Creighton Educational Garden, the Edible Ecosystem Garden, and then stroll over to Paramecium Pond to hear the latest research and plans for this area. Led by Wellesley College Botanic Gardens staff and volunteers. Note: the walk includes hills and uneven paths.

3:00—4:30 PM
Poetry and Sensory Walk
Begins at the Botanic Gardens’ Visitor Center
Tour the Botanic Gardens with the Director of the Paulson Ecology of Place Initiative while listening to poems that evoke powerful images of nature. This poetry walk will take us to different parts of the Botanic Gardens, while sharing poetry at different locations in the landscape, focusing on different senses for each poem, and sharing with each other the images or memories that the poems and earth elements evoke. Note: the walk includes hills and uneven paths. Limited to 20 participants.

3:30—3:30 PM
“The Wellesley College Botanic Gardens: A Living Laboratory” Walking Tour
Begins at the Botanic Gardens’ Visitor Center
The Botanic Gardens have some exciting research gardens that are engaging students in multiple ways. Visit the Creighton Educational Garden, the Edible Ecosystem Garden, and then stroll over to Paramecium Pond to hear the latest research and plans for this area. FACULTY LECTURE
STEM Majors and the Liberal Arts
Professor of Practice, PERA
Pendleton West 001 (seating is limited)
Come see the newly designed and renovated spaces now available to students. Designed by Kieran Timberlake, this new creative arts complex builds and extends Wellesley’s deep legacy in the arts and brings new and traditional processes together in exciting ways. Walk through the new art and media studios, the grand rehearsal hall, and the music salon.

3:00—4:00 PM
FACULTY LECTURE
Teaching the Whole Student: Understanding Mind-Body Connections and the Relationship to Academic Performance
Professor of Practice, PERA
Pendleton East 339 (seating is limited)
How does your wellness practice relate to your emotional, physical, and intellectual life? Students enrolled in an interdisciplinary first-year writing course experimented with a variety of wellness activities and learned that improved self-care practices enhanced mood, cognition, and sleep. Cutting edge research in Psychology, Neuroscience, and Exercise Science helped students understand the scientific mechanisms associated with mental and physical wellbeing. Health and fitness technology, supported by a Mellon Grant, assisted students with biofeedback information to understand and monitor their own physiological processes and put their understanding into practice. Discover how you can improve your wellbeing practices.

3:30—4:30 PM
Panel: Acknowledging Our Places in Systems of Dominance and Oppression
Jewett Auditorium (seating is limited)
Within this presentation, Gail Cruise-Roberson and Emmy Howe, co-directors of the National SEED Project (Seeking Educational Equity & Diversity), will explore and discuss their places in systems of dominance and marginalization—as well as how they relate to social systems—in order to turn oppression and dominance into agency and action. The SEED Project is a program of the Wellesley Centers for Women. Learn more at nationalseedproject.org.

FACULTY LECTURE
Race and American Politics After Obama
Jennifer Chudy, Assistant Professor of Political Science
Pendleton East 239 (seating is limited)
Using multiple national surveys and polls, Professor Chudy examines how the U.S. has become increasingly polarized by race and party since Obama's election. She discusses the racial landscape of the 2008, 2012, and 2016 elections, and also considers the ways in which race has consistently played a role in American elections since the country's inception.

The Big Foot Memorial Ride to Wounded Knee, South Dakota
Traveling with Lakota Warriors and Water Protectors on the Annual Chief Big Foot Memorial Ride to Wounded Knee, South Dakota
Elena Creef, Professor of Women's and Gender Studies
Pendleton West 001 (seating is limited)
There is no place on the American map that is both more haunted or more haunting than Wounded Knee, South Dakota—the site of the notorious massacre of some 350 Lakota men, women, and children on December 29, 1890 conducted by the soldiers of the U.S. Army's Seventh Cavalry. While official histories continue to mark this event as the “last battle” of the American Indian wars, the tragic events at Wounded Knee remain largely forgotten by most Americans but are remembered with great clarity by most Native people—especially by the Lakota who either lost ancestors there or are the direct descendants of those who survived. Historical eye witness and Ogala Lakota holy man Black Elk said that the massacre at Wounded Knee is where “the sacred hoop was broken and shattered into many pieces” and where a “beautiful dream died.” In a prophecy, he also said that the children of the seventh generation would be the ones to mend the sacred hoop. In 1986, two Lakota elders received a vision for how such a healing could take place and as a result, the Chief Big Foot Memorial Ride (Sítanka Wózikúsay) was conceived as a four-year prayer ride in preparation of a Wiping of the Tears ceremony in 1990 dedicated to the one hundred and fifty Lakota who were buried in the site’s single mass grave and never given proper ceremonial rites. This lecture shares Professor Creef’s own experience as an embedded Wellesley College professor who has been participating on this annual Lakota prayer ride.

The College Hall Fire of 1914
Jacki Musacchio, Professor of Art
Jewett Arts Center 450 (Seating is limited)

This talk examines art and life in College Hall from the founding of Wellesley in 1870, to the fire that decimated the building and its contents in 1914, to the fundraising and rebuilding efforts that followed.

FACULTY LECTURE
How (Not) to Save the Environment
Elizabeth R. DeSombre, Camilla Chandler Frost Professor of Environmental Studies
Founders Hall 120 (seating is limited)

How do you persuade people to change their behavior in order to avoid causing environmental harm? Not the way most people try to do it. Information, moral persuasion and fear are often ineffective or counterproductive—this lecture discusses why, and gives alternative strategies.

4:00–5:00 PM

4:30–5:30 PM
The Wellesley Hive & Professional Group Networking Hour
Pendleton East, Knapp Atrium

Join us for an hour of networking with Career Education’s new Career Communities, and learn how to join your colony on the Wellesley Hive! During this networking hour, we will introduce you to Wellesley’s mentorship platform, The Wellesley Hive—your gateway to the most powerful women’s network in the world. Christine Cruzvergara, associate provost and executive director of Career Education, and Missy Shea ’89, executive director of the Alumnae Association, will update you on how Wellesley students and alumnae are finding opportunities to connect, mentor, and be mentored through the platform. Learn more about Career Education (hint: it is not what you remember!), and make valuable connections to expand your own network. Career Community Advisers will be on hand to meet you and answer questions about their fields of expertise.

Ramadan Iftar Dinner
Multifaith Center, Ground Floor, Houghton Chapel
Join the Wellesley College Muslim community in a traditional Iftar (break-fast meal) and evening prayer to welcome the blessed month of Ramadan back into the academic calendar. We will celebrate Muslim life at Wellesley College, past, present, and future, featuring stories from the lives of Muslim alumnae.

This year Reunion is held during Ramadan, the holy month of fasting in the Islamic tradition that commemorates the first revelation of the Quran. Alumnae observing Ramadan can feel at home in the Multifaith Center (MFC). The Center will be open 24 hours/day throughout Reunion. The MFC kitchen will be stocked with food for the pre-dawn suhur meal, and the MFC prayer room will also be open.

Can a Website Help Close the Gender Pay Gap?

Launched two years ago, Wellesley Career Education represents a groundbreaking new model for career exploration and advancement. Now, with our new interactive website, students and alumnae have an always-on channel to the wealth of resources and opportunities offered by Wellesley Career Education.

At Wellesley, we’re giving women the tools they need to help them bridge the wage gap, one career move at a time.

Many people try a combination of thinking, a little Google research, sending out a few blind resumes, and thinking some more. It is a cycle that rarely yields results. We’d like to offer an introduction to two very different but widely applicable frameworks (Design Thinking and Radical Candor) that will enable you to actively move out of that cycle and towards your career goal for your particular stage of life. Join us to invest in your own personal growth and career development.

FACULTY LECTURE
Finding Our Center: Cultivating Calm in the Labyrinth
Tiffany Steinwert, Dean, Office of Religious and Spiritual Life
Multifacit Center, Ground Floor, Houghton Chapel

Come explore the ancient practice of the labyrinth. The labyrinth is a walking meditation. It is a path of quiet contemplation. In this workshop, you will be introduced to the labyrinth as a tool for cultivating calm in the midst of a busy and often chaotic world. The workshop begins in the Multifaith Center and ends in the outdoor labyrinth in the Botanic Garden. The workshop will be led by Tiffany Steinwert, Dean of Religious and Spiritual Life at Wellesley College. People of all religious and non-religious traditions are welcome. No experience necessary. The Labyrinth Project at Wellesley College is generously funded through a gift by Laura Becker Lewke ’77.

FACULTY LECTURE
Seeing the Light: Celebrating the Rare Book Collection of Photographer Olivia Hood Parker, Class of 1963
TZE House
Special Collections, Clapp Library, 4th floor (Seating is limited)
Award-winning photographer Olivia Hood Parker ’63 will speak about her years of collecting rare books and manuscripts, and how her work is influenced by the themes and images within them. Attendees will have a chance to see original materials in the Special Collections Seminar Room.
FACULTY LECTURE
Mary Cassatt’s Modern Women
Paul Fisher, Associate Professor of American Studies
Pendleton East 239 (Seating is limited)
Not everyone sees Mary Cassatt’s mother-and-child paintings as feminist. Yet these belong to an impressive body of work that feminist scholars increasingly see as linked to the earthshaking changes in women’s lives that were taking place in the Belle Époque. Not only was Cassatt a card-carrying suffragist and the only American woman to exhibit with the exclusive and male-dominated Impressionist group, she was also an astute and provocative painter of modern women during a time when modernity itself was largely a women’s creation.

FACULTY LECTURE
Do Jews Really Matter to the French Republic?
Frances Malino, Sophia Moses Robison Professor of Jewish Studies and History
Founders Hall 120 (Seating is limited)
Come hear Professor Malino give her final lecture before her retirement from Wellesley this month. In a recent and eloquent speech before Parliament, the French Prime Minister made a startling declaration: “Without France’s Jews, France would no longer be France.” How should we understand this declaration? Is it merely rhetorical flourish? Or was the Prime Minister making a statement of historical fact? To help us decide, we shall explore the relationship between the Jews of France and the birth of the French Republic.

FACULTY LECTURE
The Cassini Mission to Saturn: An Insider’s View of an International Journey of Discovery
Richard French, Professor of Astronomy
Jewett Auditorium (Seating is limited)
The Cassini mission transformed our understanding of this beautiful ringed planet and its entourage of moons. Share an insider’s view, from the project’s inception to the final months of up-close exploration of this giant world, with Cassini Radio Science Team Leader and Professor of Astronomy Richard French.

FACULTY LECTURE
Russia: A Globalized Kleptocracy
Igor Logvinenko, Assistant Professor of Political Science
Collins Cinema (Seating is limited)
Since the collapse of communism, Russian business elites adopted a model of coexistence with the Russian state, which combines majority local control with otherwise unrestricted access to global financial markets. This “control and access” model was first implemented by the “old” Russian oligarchs during the first decade of transition and later embraced by the new economic elite that arose around president Vladimir Putin. Greater exposure to financial globalization has its own costs, but on balance it has supported the continuation of kleptocratic authoritarianism in Russia. Professor Logvinenko will describe how this system took hold using examples from the last 30 years of Russian political history. The lecture will also explain why the Russian tycoons are particularly vulnerable to Western financial sanctions.

FACULTY LECTURE
Colorism’s Impact on Identity and Race
Ophera Davis, Lecturer in Africana Studies
Pendleton West 201 Grand Music Hall (Seating is limited)
This talk will discuss the ways in which colorism impacts one’s identity and race. In this interactive session, participants will ponder, examine, and discuss aspects of colorism in small groups. Attendees will leave enlightened of the ways in which a unified collective consciousness has the capacity to reduce the impact of colorism in our society.

FACULTY LECTURE
From Inequality to Solidarity: Co-Creating a New Economics for the 21st Century
Julie Matthaei, Professor of Economics
Pendleton East 339 (Seating is limited)
We are in the midst of an epoch paradigm shift, from inequality to solidarity. Capitalism is a hybrid system, caught in between the two paradigms. It was built on a foundation of hierarchy and domination, inherited from previous, inequality paradigm systems (feudalism and slavery, and patriarchy), but also on a commitment to equal rights and the opportunity to advance. This contradiction has birthed four great, increasingly interconnected social movements – anti-classist, anti-racist, feminist, and ecology – which are deconstructing inequality and creating new, solidarity forms of social life. These include a vast array of “solidarity economy” practices and institutions based on socially responsible agency, cooperation, and sustainability.

Gail Cruise-Roberson, Co-Director, National SEED Project

Quiana Agbai ’02, Social Media Activist and founder of Trifecta Media Group

Tishman Commons, Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center, 1st Floor

Have you been alarmed by the re-emergence of ugly, overt racism across our nation and dismayed by the slow pace of racial justice? Conversations about race continue to be at the forefront of national attention: the challenge is to explore race effectively and move to action! This interactive panel, led by nationally respected leaders, Dr. Peggy McIntosh and Gail Cruise-Roberson of the Wellesley Centers for Women and the SEED Project, and Quiana Agbai ’02, a dynamic social media activist, will explore resources we can use in our families, workplaces, and communities, as well as strategies to bring about collective impact for social change. Personally-focused and action-oriented, this session will be enriched by participant-submitted questions and small-group reflection.

HEALTH SERVICES
In case of a medical emergency, please call campus police at 781.283.5555.

There will be an ambulance on campus, located in Founders Parking Lot for selected hours on Saturday and Sunday.

Ambulance Hours
Saturday, 12:00–3:00 PM
Sunday, 10:00 AM–2:00 PM

Each residence hall is equipped with a medical aid bag for minor injuries (e.g., ice packs, Band-Aids, aspirin). Please contact your residence hall team for assistance.

HOUGHTON CHAPEL & MULTIFAITH CENTER
Open 24 hours a day for religious and spiritual observance.

INTERNET ACCESS
Wireless connections are available in all residence halls and various points throughout campus. Guests can connect to the Wellesley Guest Wi-Fi network. After connecting the first time, open a web browser, attempt to visit any website and you should be directed to the Guest portal. Guests should review the Acceptable Use terms, enter their email address, and click Accept to access the network. This access should last 18 hours and can be renewed at that time.

There are eight computers available for alumnae and their adult guests to use during Reunion weekend, Friday from 8:30 until 4:30 PM and Saturday from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM. These include four stations in Knapp (Clapp Library, Lower Level) and four stations on the main floor of Clapp Library (inside and outside of the reference room).

NEHOIDEN GOLF COURSE

The College owns and maintains the Nehoiden Golf Club, recently ranked one of the “Finest Nines” in the U.S. This year, for the first time, we are offering the chance to play in a 9-hole scramble or to participate in a clinic on Friday and/or Saturday ($50 includes golf activity and light refreshments). For more information, or to sign up, contact Leslie Andrews ’82, Director of Golf at Nehoiden at Leslie.Andrews@wellesley.edu or (781) 283-3129.

If you wish to play golf on your own on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, please go to the Starter located at 91 Dover Road. The fee for alumnae is $40. There are no reserved tee times. Players tee off on a first-come, first-served basis unless otherwise directed by the starter.

OFFICE OF GIFT PLANNING

Friday, 8:30 AM–12:00 PM, 3:00–4:30 PM
Saturday, 8:30 AM–4:30 PM

TENNIS COURTS

Alumnae and guests may use the Keohane Tennis Courts located near the Distribution Center on Route 135.

THEATRE PRODUCTION: A PIECE OF MY HEART

Friday, 7:00 PM
Saturday, 2:00 PM
Sunday, 2:00 PM

Diana Chapman Walsh Alumnae Hall, Ruth Nagel Jones Theatre

Wellesley Repertory Theatre presents “A Piece of My Heart” by Shirley Lauro, directed by Nora Hussey. This is a powerful, true drama of six women who went to Vietnam: five nurses and a country western singer booked by an unscrupulous agent to entertain the troops. The play portrays each young woman before, during and after her tour in the war-torn jungle and ends as each leaves a personal token at The Wall in Washington.

“There have been a number of plays dealing with Vietnam, but none with the direct, emotional impact of Ms. Lauro’s work.”
– NY Times

Reservations at 781.283.2000 are absolutely needed. Tickets are $10.00 for general admission and $5.00 for senior alumnae.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE BOTANIC GARDENS

Wellesley College Botanic Gardens’ Visitor Center Hours
Friday and Saturday, 8:00 AM–5:00 PM
Sunday, 8:00 AM–4:00 PM

The Global Flora Greenhouse is in its first stages of construction. This innovative and sustainable design carries Margaret Ferguson’s vision of “laboratories under glass” into the 21st century. Drawings and plans for Global Flora are on view in the Creighton Room of the Botanic Gardens’ Visitor Center.

The 22 acres of the H. H. Hunnewell Arboretum and the Alexandra Botanic Garden, open from dawn to dusk, contain over 500 species of woody plants in 53 different plant families. The collection of specimen trees and shrubs provides spectacular flowering in the spring and a range of color in the autumn.

THE WELLESLEY FUND OFFICE

Friday and Saturday, 8:30 AM–4:30 PM

The Wellesley Fund office will be open during Reunion weekend to meet with volunteers and collect gifts during the hours listed above. Alumnae can make gifts throughout the weekend in many ways: by giving your gift to a member of your class Reunion Gift Committee; by dropping your gift in a locked gift box at your class headquarters or at the Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center; by calling The Wellesley Fund Office at 800.358.3543; online at www.wellesley.edu/give; or by texting your name, class year, and the word FUND to 50555 on your cell phone to make a gift of $10. All gifts to the College will count toward class Reunion Gift totals and will also count toward The Wellesley Effect campaign.

The Wellesley Fund will also have a table conveniently located on the second floor of the Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center to answer questions and collect gifts both Friday, 1:00–4:30 PM and Saturday, 11:00 AM–3:00 PM.

Summer. It’s the season for discovery, exploration, and growth. One Wellesley Summer offers students more than classes and credits—it offers them the opportunity to enjoy the full Wellesley experience. Finally, they can understand what you’ve been saying.

Summer Term: Students take full-credit classes drawn from a sampling of courses taught during the academic year at Wellesley.

Pre-College Residential Programs: High-school girls gain valuable insights on college life while making lasting friendships.

Contemporary Women’s Leadership Program: Undergraduate women learn about leadership through classroom education and self-reflective activities.

Learn more. Visit Wellesley.edu/Summer for program information and course offerings.

‘The summer program taught our daughter how to be more independent as both a thinker and a learner. She came home more grown up and ready to conquer her senior year of high school.’
Shari, mom of Pre-College student, Julia

MISSION STATEMENT
The mission of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) is to support the institutional priorities of Wellesley College by connecting alumnae to the College and to each other. The Association serves as a lifelong resource to alumnae and encourages alumnae to contribute to the continued excellence of the College.

THE ASSOCIATION’S RELATIONSHIP TO THE COLLEGE
The Association is an independent, self-governing organization created by the alumnae of Wellesley College in 1880 and incorporated in 1916. It maintains substantial representation on the board of trustees of the College, with four alumnae trustees, a young alumnae trustee and the president of the Association, who serves ex officio and with vote. On administrative and programming fronts, Association volunteers and staff work closely with the Office of Admission, Career Education, Office for Resources, President’s Office and other College offices.

In 1952, during the 75th Anniversary Fund campaign, the Alumnae Association board and the College Board of Trustees began to rethink the fundraising role of the Association. The decision was made to change the Association’s mission, it was recognized as an independent 501(c)3 non-profit organization and, since then, all fundraising for the College has come through the Office for Resources. The Alumnae Association and the Office for Resources continue to work closely and have a strong partnership as we serve these distinct roles.

2017–2018

2017–2018 ANNUAL REPORT
MAJOR PROGRAMS

A Day to Make a Difference:
Hundreds of alumnae around the world take part in community service projects through their clubs and as individuals for our annual A Day to Make a Difference, which we host in partnership with Career Education. This tradition of rededication to our college motto has struck a deep chord with alumnae around the globe.

Admission:
Admission efforts are greatly supported by our alumnae clubs and individual volunteers. This past year, they conducted over 1,000 interviews, attended over 100 college fairs, and held receptions for admitted students and summer send-offs for incoming first years.

Book Award Program:
The Book Award Program honors exceptional young women who have been top scholars in their high school class and have also distinguished themselves through their extracurricular activities and in their community. The award gives students a chance to learn more about Wellesley, especially if they are not already familiar with the College.

Alumnae Achievement Awards:
The 2018 Alumnae Achievement Awards will be presented to Camara Jones ’76, Family Physician & Epidemiologist, National Public Health Expert, Champion of Racial & Economic Health Equity; and Nergis Mavalvala ’90, Quantum Astrophysicist, Outstanding Communicator, Leader, & Innovator of Science, Inspirational Professor, in a ceremony in Diana Chapman Walsh Alumnae Hall before an audience of alumnae, students, staff, faculty, and friends on October 12, 2018. All alumnae are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Alumnae Leadership Council (ALC):
ALC annually hosts class, club, shared interest group (SIG), and Reunion volunteers for training and inspiration. Attendees at ALC 2017 learned club, class, and SIG best practices and heard firsthand from current College programs, priorities and accomplishments from both students and the College’s senior management.

Faculty Speaker Program:
This year, the WCAA sponsored over 35 faculty speaker programs with our clubs, enhancing our alumnae’s lifelong intellectual connection to the College and their understanding of life at Wellesley today.

Memories Night:
Memories Night is a panel discussion with alumnae from across the decades to discuss their time at Wellesley with current students. Students relish hearing how Wellesley has changed (or not!) over the past 60 years.

My Wellesley Community:
The WCAA’s online community launched in 2015: you can find it at www.alum.wellesley.edu. It’s a gateway to information from your class, local club, SIG, as well as our alumnae directory. Join in discussion groups, learn about events, and maintain memberships. To take advantage of the community, activate your Wellesley Login (visit www.wellesley.edu/alum/wellesley/login for more information). Once you’re in the community, review your profile and make sure your information is up to date. You can also upload a photo of yourself. Your Wellesley Login will allow you to search for classmates and other alumnae in the online directory.

Reunion:
For Reunion 2018, we are excited to offer our wonderful faculty lectures, tours of campus sites, and programming to reconnect you to each other and to the College.

Senior Celebrations:
Hosted by the WCAA, in partnership with the Office for Resources, this event is the official induction of seniors into the Alumnae Association. Seniors toast fellow classmates and hear from their class officers.

Stepsinging:
Twice a year students are given songbooks and assemble by classes to try to out-sing and out-cheer the other classes. Dressed in their respective class colors—red, yellow, purple, and green—students rally behind the elected songmistresses for each class.

Thanksgiving Match:
The WCAA, in partnership with Slater International, connects Wellesley students with members of the Wellesley community for Thanksgiving. The program gives students whose own families are far away a chance to get off campus, and enjoy a family setting and a home-cooked meal.

Wellesley magazine:
Our award-winning alumnae magazine continues to provide an exceptional resource to alumnae around the world as it connects us with one another and with activities at the College. It is published quarterly and is also available online at magazine.wellesley.edu. Follow us on Facebook and Twitter: @wellesleymag.

TO ALMA MATER

LYRICS BY:
Anne Barrett Hughes,
Class of 1886

ARRANGED BY:
Flora Smeallie Ward,
Class of 1886

FROM THE GERMAN AIR THE MOUNTAIN MAIDEN

To Alma Mater, Wellesley’s daughters,
All together join and sing,
Thro’ all her wealth of wood and waters,
Let your happy voices ring

In ev’ry changing mood we love her,
Love her tow’rs and woods and lake,
Oh, changeful sky, bend blue above her!
Wake, ye birds, your chorus wake!

We’ll sing her praises now and ever,
Blessed fount of truth and love,
Our heart’s devotion, may it never
Faithless or unworthy prove

We’ll give our lives and hopes to serve her,
Humblest, highest, noblest all,
A stainless name we will preserve her,
Answer to her ev’ry call

THE WELLESLEY CHEER

Fast and energetically*

Composed by:
May Sleeper Ruggles, Class of 1886

Tru la la la, tru la la la, tru la la la, la la la, W-E-L-

*To be sung briskly, no slower than metronome 88; there ought to be no pause before the eighth measure.
Alumnae Parade Map

Starting Points

For alumnae from the classes of 1938, 1943, and 1948: If you are staying at the College Club and not attending the Sunday Memorial Service, a trolley will arrive at 9:30am to pick you up from the College Club and take you to the start of the parade. Otherwise, please meet at the Chapel at 10:00am. You will all ride together in cars or trolley from the Chapel to Alumnae Hall for the parade and cheer from your cars.

For alumnae from the classes of 1953 and younger: If you are unable to march the parade route, please await parade transportation with your class. You will be transported along the parade route as a group.

NOTE: The Davis Parking Garage will be closed during the Alumnae Parade on from 10 AM–12 PM. If you need to leave campus during this time, please park in the Distribution Center Parking Lot.

Refill your Wellesley water bottle at the Wells on Wheels water station outside of Alumnae Hall Ballroom.
