Chinese Government Scholarships
Campus deadline: January 15, 2016

The Chinese government has set up seven scholarship programs to sponsor international students, teachers, and scholars to study and do research at Chinese universities. The China Scholarship Council offers two full-year scholarships for graduating Wellesley College seniors who would like to study for a year at any one of more than one hundred top-rated Chinese universities.

Who is eligible? (Varies by program)*
- Non-Chinese citizens in good health; and
- For the master’s degree program: those who have a Bachelor’s degree and are under the age of 35.

How do I apply?

Before proceeding with your application, it is important to discuss your plans with Elizabeth Mandeville, Director of Fellowship Programs. Please make an appointment or targeted drop-in online with Elizabeth through MyCWS.

Applicants for a Chinese Government Scholarship must go through the Wellesley screening process. This entails submission of all preliminary application materials to Mary Beth Callery in the Center for Work and Service (CWS) by the campus deadline in late January.

Application checklist

- Completed cover sheet
- Online Chinese Government Scholarship application form
- Statement of interest (one page) describing how this year of study will fit in with your goals for the future, and why you chose the one- or two- semester program.
- Study plan (see online application)
- Resume
- Two letters of reference
Application timeline

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Late January</th>
<th>Wellesley campus deadline. Applicants should submit all preliminary materials to the Center for Work and Service by this date.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>February</td>
<td>A campus committee will review applications, interview candidates, and nominate fellowship recipients.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Early March</td>
<td>Deadline for final application materials to reach the Chinese consulate in New York.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>