THE DAVIS MUSEUM HOSTS FREE LATIN AMERICAN ART EVENT ON APRIL 27: FAMILY DAY: DÍA DE LA FAMILIA

WELLESLEY, Mass. –The Davis Museum at Wellesley College invites family members of all ages to participate in activities inspired by Latin American art and culture during Family Day: Family Day: Día de la familia. This free event, which takes place on Saturday, April 27 from 11 a.m. through 3 p.m., will offer events inspired by current Davis exhibition, Art_Latin_America: Against the Survey.

During Family Day, there will be many hands-on art making activities such as creating Ex-votos, assembling a book with printmaking and collage, and creating postcards. Other activities include a treasure hunt in the galleries, story time, and a tour of special exhibition Art_Latin_America: Against the Survey.

“We invite visitors of all ages to participate in the day’s events,” says Arthurina Fears, Manager of Museum Education and Programs. “In addition, our special exhibition Art_Latin_America: Against the Survey will be free of charge that day as well, providing the opportunity for visitors to engage with 150 works of modern and contemporary Latin American and Latinx art by nearly 100 artists, a third of them women.”

ABOUT THE DAVIS MUSEUM

One of the oldest and most acclaimed academic fine arts museums in the United States, the Davis Museum is a vital force in the intellectual, pedagogical and social life of Wellesley College. It seeks to create an environment that encourages visual literacy, inspires new ideas, and fosters involvement with the arts both within the College and the larger community.

ABOUT WELLESLEY COLLEGE AND THE ARTS

The Wellesley College arts curriculum and the highly acclaimed Davis Museum are integral components of the College’s liberal arts education. Departments and programs from across the campus enliven the community with world-class programming– classical and popular music, visual arts, theatre, dance, author readings, symposia, and lectures by some of today’s leading artists and creative thinkers–most of which are free and open to the public.

Since 1875, Wellesley College has been a leader in providing an excellent liberal arts education for women who will make a difference in the world. Its 500-acre campus near Boston is home to some 2,400 undergraduate students from 49 states and 58 countries.
