Returning Student Guide Bios - Fall 2019

Class of 2020

Name: Eunbie Coe ('20)

Major(s)/Minor: Economics & Computer Science

I'm from Los Angeles, CA. My hobbies on campus include squash and choice. Aside from being happy that I'm a senior, I'm excited about the new exhibit and incorporation of AR technology!

Name: Sarah Guise ('20)

Major(s)/Minor: Art History

Hi, I'm Sarah Guise '20 (she/hers)! I am from Silver Spring, Maryland. When I'm not studying or giving tours, I fence for Wellesley Blue. This semester, I'm excited about applying my newfound knowledge from my summer travels to my classes and tours!

Name: Megan Ruppel ('20)

Major(s)/Minor: Religion & Philosophy

I am from Seattle, where I love to go hiking. My favorite equivalent at Wellesley is walking around Lake Waban, which I do almost every day. I'm very glad to be back at the Davis for my senior year, and I am looking forward to using my tours as a space to develop ideas with visitors about women in art, religious art, and other themes that overlap with my academic research!

Name: Sarah Stover ('20)

Major(s)/Minor: Biology & Geosciences

I'm from Chester NJ. I love to draw and visit museums and I am excited for the temporary exhibitions at the Davis this semester.

Name: Emma Bachman ('22)

Major(s)/Minor: English

I am from Cleveland, Ohio. After graduating from high school, I spent nine months studying plein air painting and art history at the Marchutz School of Fine Arts in Aix-en-Provence, France as a part of my gap year. I'm particularly interested in the history and evolution of French painting as well as the relationship between painting and poetry.

Class of 2021

Name: Genevieve Fisher ('21)

Major(s)/Minor: Anthropology

I am the youngest of three daughters from Chicago, Illinois. I am very interested in the fields of physical anthropology and archaeology. In my free time, I like to paint, draw, and reads well as play with any cute animals.

Name: Lance Silberstein ('21)

Major(s)/Minor: Cognitive and Linguistic Sciences & Middle Eastern Studies

I'm from New York City, New York. On campus, I'm on the Whomping Wellesleys Quidditch Team. I love how museums are able to connect people through art to perspectives and worldviews they never expected to see, and I want to help visitors make those connections.

Name: Yige Zhu ('21)

Major(s)/Minor: Computer Sciences & Philosophy

I love going to museums and exhibitions in my free time, and I'm also very interested in modern and contemporary art and how they can be interpreted.

Class of 2022

Name: Kai Barreras ('22)

Major(s)/Minor: Undeclared

I'm from Miami Beach, Florida. I am thrilled for the opportunity to be surrounded by and interacting with some of my favorite artists including Sigmar Polke, Oskar Kokoschka, Maximilien Luce, and Emile Bernard. More importantly, I am eager to share this passion with others who are just as stimulated by art as I am.

Name: Alexandra Fitzgerald ('22)

Major(s)/Minor: Economics & French

I'm from St. Petersburg, Florida. On campus, I am on the crew team.

Name: Sabrina Koseki ('22)

Major(s)/Minor: Music/Neuroscience

I went to a public arts high school in Houston, Texas, where we had “online PE,” but now I am in two sports orgs on campus, the BOW rock climbing team, and the Wellesley Whiptails frisbee team. I’m excited to be a Student Guide because it is such an amazing opportunity to learn about art, and I look forward to learning more about the connections between art movements and music so I can share that with people.

New Student Guide Bios - Fall 2019

Class of 2023

Name: Karissa Coleman ('23)

Major(s)/Minor: Political Science & International Relations

I’m from Springfield, MA. I love to dance, especially hip hop, and I am excited to learn more about Wellesley and myself.

Name: Regina Gallardo ('23)

Major(s)/Minor: Prospective Art History & International Relations

I was born and raised in Mexico City but moved to Miami 6 years ago. I love reading, creating art and the outdoors. I have a great love for music both in English and Spanish. I am excited to explore a new city and meet new and exciting people.

Name: Mable Peach ('23)

Major(s)/Minor: Art History

My name is Mable Peach ('23)! I am first-year student at Wellesley from a town that is right outside of Philadelphia. As a prospective art history major, I love learning about art law and repatriation on my own time. In addition to being on DMSAC's Programming Committee, I am a student guide at the Davis, the Eco Rep for Tower Court House Council, and a volunteer at Natick Community Organic Farm. I love to read, go on walks around Wellesley, and visit museums.

Name: Zoe Taylor ('23)

Major(s)/Minor: Potential Focuses in Art History, French Cultural Studies, Healthy and Society
I'm from the San Francisco Bay Area. Some of my favorite hobbies are video editing and mood-boarding. I'm most excited about learning more about how a museum operates from the archival and object side

Name: Chloe Ratte ('23)

Major(s)/Minor: Prospective English—Creative Writing & Computer Science

I'm from Bloomfield NJ. I have a love of the arts—creative writing, drawing, piano, painting, crafts, etc— as well as a love for computer science, puzzles, history (and old stuff in general), and, most importantly, stories. I love a good book, movie, or TV Show, but I especially love alternative forms of media like video games, podcasts, graphic novels, etc. This semester, I'm really excited about trying new things and seeing all Wellesley has to offer!
