Dear Class of 2022, Transfer Students, and Davis Scholars,

Welcome to Wellesley! We are so excited to be your Orientation Coordinators and to introduce you to the Wellesley community. This summer, we’re planning all your amazing Orientation events and can’t wait for you all to get here. Since you’ll be hearing a lot from us, here’s a little bit of information to get to know us better:

Student Orientation Coordinators

Hey everyone! My name is Sarah Chu and I am a rising junior from Randolph, Massachusetts! I am an economics major and mathematics minor, part of our First-Generation network, and a dedicated member of the MIT/Wellesley Ballroom Dance Team. Orientation is an unforgettable experience: connecting with your First-Year Mentor, making long-lasting friendships with people from all over the world, and admiring our scenic campus are just snippets of what excites me most about Orientation.

Hi everyone! My name is Samara Nelson and I am a rising sophomore from Deerfield, Massachusetts! I am interested in studying art history and economics and am a member of the Schneider Board of Governors. Wellesley is a vibrant community filled with endless academic and co-curricular opportunities and resources. Most of all, I hope you learn about one of the most valuable resources - your classmates! I am so looking forward to welcoming you to the Wellesley family!

Orientation Communications Coordinator

Hey everyone! My name is Avery Lumeng and I’m a rising sophomore from Ann Arbor, Michigan! I’m interested in studying political science, American studies and/or computer science, and I’m involved in the Wellesley College Democrats, College Government, and the Wellesley Debate Society. Last year, I walked into Orientation anxious about whether I would be able to find my place. I walked out having made wonderful new friends and having joined an unrivaled community of supportive, welcoming peers. I’m so excited to welcome you all with open arms!

Once again, we can’t wait to meet you and welcome you to Wellesley! Throughout the summer, you can keep in touch by following us on Facebook or Instagram, or by emailing orientation-questions@wellesley.edu. In the coming weeks, you’ll hear more from us but until then, enjoy your summer and we’ll see you in a few short months!

Warmly,

Sarah Chu ’20, Samara Nelson ’21, and Avery Lumeng ’21
