Mission Statement: The goal of the Case Fellowship program is to provide a select group of students the opportunity to work one on one with a faculty member during the academic year in a way that illuminates all of the academic and professional activities that faculty pursue.

Eligibility
1) Faculty: all continuing faculty not on leave can request a Case Fellow. Faculty are not obligated to do so.
2) Students: either declared or anticipated economics majors. Consideration should be given to providing opportunities for non-seniors.

Potential Activities of Fellows:
1) Teaching assistance:
   a. organizing course study groups,
   b. assistance with course preparation,
   c. course help sessions
   d. grading problem sets
   e. Sakai maintenance
   f. Teach a class
   g. Various other course-related assistance
2) Research Assistance
   a. Data collection
   b. Simple statistical analyses
   c. Making diagrams
   d. Assistance preparing presentations
   e. Other research-related activities
3) Professional obligations
   a. Attend local professional talks by faculty member.
   b. Accompany faculty member to professional talks.
   c. Assist faculty with journal editing, textbook preparation, or the like.

Obligations of Faculty Requesting a Fellow
1) Attend occasional Case Fellow events/receptions
2) Provide opportunities for activities beyond grading
3) meet regularly with your Case Fellow

Organizational issues
1) Amount of Funding: For faculty teaching a full course load, $1,000 stipend for the Fellow. For faculty teaching less than a full course load, funding is pro-rated.
2) Compensation system: single, lump-sum stipend.
3) Selection system:
   a. Students submit general application, due just prior to the end of the year
   b. Faculty select their own Fellows following final exams
   c. Students are selected for the duration of an academic year
4) Time commitment: will vary based on the faculty member's needs and the student's availability, but generally should not exceed 5 hours per week.
