An all-day community celebration, Community Day of Poetry is the culminating event of National Poetry Month at Wellesley.

National Poetry Month at Wellesley is an initiative organized in collaboration with Mass Poetry to encourage all members of the community to celebrate the power of poetry to bring people together.

The events and activities offered throughout the Community Day of Poetry are designed to inspire and delight the community members and visitors as they move through the landscape.

All events and activities are free and open to the public.

Questions? Please contact Suzanne Langridge, director of the Paulson Initiative: slangrid@wellesley.edu.

For accessibility resources, please email accessibility@wellesley.edu.
