

JACQUELINE LOEWE FOWLER '47 Prize in Public Speaking

Prize Description

This year's Ruhlman Conference will host The Maurer Public Speaking Program's first annual Jacqueline Loewe Fowler '47 Prize in Public Speaking competition. The prize honors Mrs. Fowler's support of public speaking at Wellesley through her substantial contributions to the public speaking program established by Anne E. Maurer, '51 and her husband Gilbert in 2012.

The five finalists, listed below, will be presenting throughout the day in PNW-212, and their talks can be viewed online at: wellesley.edu/PublicAffairs/Live
