Overview

What it is:

If you do not have a Massachusetts driver's license, the Registry of Motor Vehicles (RMV) can issue you an official Massachusetts identification card. This ID card does not extend any driving privileges, but is an official form of identity, signature, and age that is accepted in State<sup>1</sup>.

The ID is valid for 5 years.

Eligibility:

In order to be eligible to apply for a Massachusetts State ID, you:

- Must be at least 14 years of age.
- Must not hold a valid license in any other state.
- Must be a resident of Massachusetts.

Where to get it:

You can apply for a Massachusetts ID at any full service RMV office<sup>3</sup>. After initial application at the respective RMV branch, you will be given a temporary ID card that is valid for 30 days only, and within those 30 days, your permanent ID card will be mailed to you.

How to Apply

1. Complete a Class D, M, or D/M License and ID Card Application, available at any RMV service office, or may be downloaded from the RMV website<sup>4</sup>.
2. Present the application, $25.00 fee and the appropriate documentation (see section below), in person to any RMV full service office.
