“Health Advocate saved the day.”

When Gina received a large bill for anesthesia after a recent surgery that should have been covered by her health plan, she called Health Advocate. Her Personal Health Advocate sorted through the paperwork, found a coding error and worked with the hospital and Gina’s plan to get the claim reprocessed, saving Gina significant time and money.

“They took the pressure off a serious situation.”

Don called Health Advocate after his son, Jake, was injured in a car accident. His Personal Health Advocate worked with the hospital and health plan to find a rehab facility that could accommodate Jake as soon as he was discharged. She also located a leading orthopedic specialist and expedited an appointment so there would be no delays in his care.
