ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Reunion weekend is sponsored by the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA), but it represents a collaborative and coordinated effort on the part of the WCAA and the College. We would like to thank everyone involved in making Reunion possible—we simply could not host this event without them. Our profound gratitude goes to the faculty and staff who have generously given their time to enrich the Reunion program. In addition, the WCAA is indebted to the hundreds of alumnae volunteers who deliver programs and activities with generous contributions of their time, talent, leadership, and expertise every year.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Paula A. Johnson

Dear Alumna,

Welcome back for Reunion 2017! We are so happy to have you—and more than 2,000 other graduates, guests and children—back on campus. This will be my first Reunion as president, and I am excited to experience, first-hand, the storied Wellesley Reunion.

Your return to your alma mater for Reunion shows how much you value your connections to the College and to your fellow alumnae. These connections are what make Wellesley so strong.

In the past year, I have had the pleasure of meeting alumnae from around the world. You have helped me learn about the many Wellesley traditions, shared your stories about how Wellesley has shaped you, and told me your hopes for the College's future. These conversations have been inspiring, and I look forward to many more this weekend. Through all of this you demonstrate your unwavering support for the College and its mission.

The Wellesley College Alumnae Association has worked hard to create a robust slate of programs for you, including multi-class social events, faculty lectures on current topics of interest, and an interdepartmental, academic open house, all of which you will find in these pages. Stop by Acorns House on Saturday afternoon for an update on "Student Life Today." And please join me for the Alumnae Association's annual meeting on Saturday at 11:00 am.

This weekend, I encourage you to find new ways to reconnect with the College, the faculty, and classmates and friends. But most importantly, celebrate all that makes Wellesley the special place—and powerful community—it is. As you enjoy being back on this lovely campus surrounded by friends, I hope you create the memories and relationships that will bring you back for many more Reunions to come.

Warm regards,

Paula A. Johnson
President

WELLESLEY COLLEGE
ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

Dear Alumna:

On behalf of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA), I am thrilled to welcome you back to campus!

The WCAA's mission—to connect alumnae to the College and to each other—is fully realized at Reunion. Whether you are celebrating your 5th or 80th, we hope you reconnect with all that is Wellesley. There is a wide range of programs planned for you: from stimulating faculty lectures to in-depth tours, from yoga to a walk (or run!) around the lake, from Stepsinging to academic open houses.

We encourage you to take the time to visit some of the campus renewal initiatives that have been completed since your last Reunion. On pages 6-9 of this program, we've added a "What's New for You?" section that highlights all of these incredible changes. For example, Pendleton West was just finished this spring and features beautiful new art studios and a large music hall with superb acoustics. It is well worth a visit. Other major renovations include Schneider Center, which provides inviting space for several student services offices; the Field House, offering a fabulous new fitness mezzanine; and the Butler Boathouse, reopened in 2015 as a brighter, more accessible, and more functional building.

Join us for the WCAA annual meeting, now scheduled for Saturday at 11 am, where we will celebrate class milestones and notable alumnae. The annual meeting will also afford us a special opportunity to hear from President Paula A. Johnson, in her first Reunion address to alumnae.

Reunion would not be possible without the hard work, commitment, and enthusiasm of your class volunteers. The WCAA board of directors and I extend our heartfelt thanks to all of these dedicated alumnae; you can find their names listed on your class website. Please thank them for their hard work and dedication to bringing your class together for this special weekend.

Whether you participate in several programs or simply enjoy the beauty of our campus and deepen long-standing friendships, we hope you enjoy Reunion 2017. It's going to be a wonderful weekend. We're happy you're here!

Sincerely,

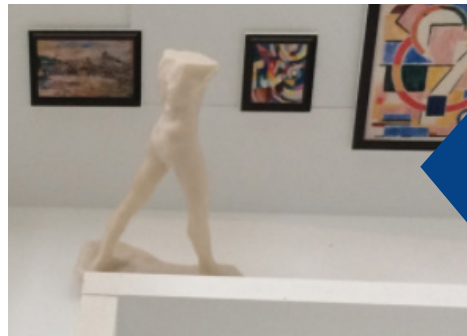

Georgia Murphy Johnson '75
President, Board of Directors, Wellesley College Alumnae Association

WHAT'S NEW ON CAMPUS?

Explore the new additions and renovations that have taken place since you were here for Reunion 2012!

On September 28, 2016 the Davis Museum unveiled the Davis. ReDiscovered, a total transformation of the Davis permanent collections galleries, reshaped and reconceived to present the breadth and strength of the Museum's encyclopedic holdings.

Harambee House, which has served students of African descent since 1970, received repairs and upgrades to the lower level in 2016 including an expanded den with study tables, a new conference room, and an updated kitchen with new appliances and countertop seating.

The East Side Fire Pit in McAfee Courtyard, donated by the WCAA in honor of former College President H. Kim Bottomly, offers an inviting spot for social gatherings and has quickly become a favorite among the students since opening in April 2017.

Pendleton West was renovated in 2016-2017 to create connections between the disciplines of media, arts, and sciences. The new space includes art studios, music performance spaces, and common areas.

In 2015, the Boathouse underwent a comprehensive renovation thanks to the generosity of Alice Lehmann Butler '53. The renovations included creating a new main entry, prep room, improved shop space, canoe/kayak room, and storage.

Schneider Center's newly renovated space, now housing student services offices, offers fresh contemporary spaces while retaining its soaring windows and beautiful wooden trusses.

Freeman Hall completed renovations in 2016 to re-purpose existing spaces including the living room and outdoor courtyard.

WHAT'S NEW TO REUNION PROGRAMMING?

Learn some of the ways the WCAA has enhanced the schedule of events for Reunion 2017.

The 137th Annual Meeting of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association will take place on Saturday at 11:00 AM in Alumnae Hall Auditorium. Don't miss President Paula A. Johnson's first State of the College address!

Sunday Celebration: In Gratitude and Remembrance, a multi-faith service open to all, celebrates the blessings of our Wellesley community, past, present, and future.

Join us on Friday, 4:30-5:30 PM for an hour of networking and community-building in celebration of the launch of Wellesley's new mentorship platform, The Wellesley Hive – your gateway to the most powerful women's network in the world. See page 15 for more details.

On Saturday from 4:00-5:30 PM, come to the recently remodeled Acorns House to meet directors of various student identity organizations and chat about Student Life Today. Then connect with alumnae across classes at shared interest group (SIG) and affinity gatherings at Harambee House, 200 Billings, Slater, and Acorns.

Take advantage of our first Campus-wide Academic Open House on Saturday, 3:00-4:30 PM in Pendleton Atrium, and visit with professors from over 15 different departments. See page 22 for the full list of participating departments.

2:00–3:00 PM

FACULTY LECTURE

Buddhism and Activism: From the Vietnam War to Today

T. James Kodera, Professor of Religion
Founders 207

We will explore how Buddhism changed, since its introduction in the early 20th century, the intellectual, cultural and political landscape of North America, especially during the 60's and the 70's. We will also explore how American Buddhism may influence today's world, in which nationalism, xenophobia and the possibility of a global war are on the rise. The historic Buddhist commitment to "non-violence" will be explored.

FACULTY LECTURE

Wellesley's Planet Hunters

Kim McLeod, Professor of Astronomy
Whitin Observatory Classroom 114

Professor McLeod will describe how Wellesley students are helping to discover planets around other stars using our very own Whitin Observatory Sawyer telescope.

FACULTY LECTURE

The Andes Inverted

Daniela Rivera, Associate Professor of Studio Art
Jewett Arts Center 450

The Andes Inverted is the result of two years of research on the terraforming processes of copper mining in Chuquicamata, Chile. This art project culminated on March 4th with the exhibition The Andes Inverted at the MFA, Boston.

FACULTY LECTURE

The Calculus of Happiness: How a Mathematical Approach to Life Adds Up to Health, Wealth, and Love

Oscar E. Fernandez, Assistant Professor of Mathematics
Science Center 278

Math can be empowering. In this lecture we will discuss the subject's many insights into diet and health, personal finance, and relationships. Among the highlights: a research-backed diet for lowering disease risk, increasing life span, and losing weight; "all-weather" investment portfolios; formulas for estimating your retirement age; and math-backed strategies for finding love and strengthening relationships. Mostly pre-calculus level math will be used.

FACULTY LECTURE

My Wedding Dress & Baltimore Girls: Two Poets Read from Their Recently Published Collections

Heather Bryant, Senior Lecturer, Writing Program; author of My Wedding Dress
Lynne Viti, Senior Lecturer, Writing Program; author of Baltimore Girls
Founders 120

In My Wedding Dress, Heather Bryant weaves frank observations about the end of a marriage with rich and striking images that portend the loss—a blue glass perfume bottle, a print of an apple missing a slice, a half-grown son's infant anklet bracelet from the hospital nursery, and oysters in Paris after a brief reconciliation—to create an alchemy of words, rich with anger, sadness, loss, and fury.

Baltimore Girls is a brief collection of poems that examines the poet's early life in the 1960's and the culture in which she grew up. It is personal history—tales of a small group of young women who lived in the then-segregated city of Baltimore. The poems are mini-memoirs, snapshots of young women who had determined they were bound for greater things: "we were in a hurry to get out of town, out of state, through school, to a job..." Viti's memories of people, places and her hometown culture remain vivid and sharp, filled with the manners and rituals of the era. She recounts a teenage date as "a talisman of my life to come" because they spent the time talking "about the war, about Yeats..." This collection is significant for its realism, its honesty and its attention to detail.

FACULTY LECTURE

Economic Considerations of U.S. Immigration Policies

Kristin Butcher, Ph.D., Marshall I. Goldman Professor of Economics
Sari Pekkala Kerr, Ph.D., Senior Research Scientist/Economist, Wellesley Centers for Women
Pendleton East 239

What do the current and proposed immigration policies mean for the U.S. labor markets—for native workers, highly skilled immigrants, and employers? Additionally, what is the impact of immigration on crime in the U.S.? Kristin Butcher, Ph.D. and Sari Pekkala Kerr, Ph.D. will share their expertise and perspectives during this special presentation.

2:30–3:30 PM

"The Wellesley College Botanic Gardens: A Living Laboratory" Walking Tour

Begins at the Botanic Gardens' Visitor Center

The Botanic Gardens have some exciting research gardens that are engaging students in multiple ways. Visit the Creighton Educational Garden, the Climate Change Monitoring Garden, the Farm in a Box research plots and the Edible Ecosystem Garden, all within a short walk from our starting point at the Greenhouse Visitor Center. Led by Wellesley College Botanic Gardens staff. Tour begins at Wellesley College Botanic Gardens' Visitor Center.

3:00–5:00 PM

Tours of Pendleton West

Academic Quad Entrance of Pendleton West

Come see the newly designed and renovated spaces now available to students. Designed by Kieran Timberlake, this new creative arts complex builds and extends Wellesley's deep legacy in the arts and brings new and traditional processes together in exciting ways. Walk through the new art and media studios, the grand rehearsal hall, and the music salon.

The Many Worlds of Saturn: The Cassini Mission's Grand Finale

Dick French, Professor of Astronomy
Whitin Observatory Classroom 114

The Cassini Spacecraft has been orbiting Saturn for 13 years, providing breathtaking views of Saturn's many worlds, from enormous storms on Saturn itself, to liquid seas of methane and ethane on Saturn's largest moon, Titan, to jets of water sent spaceward from tiny Enceladus, to the marvels of Saturn's rings. The Cassini Mission will end this summer in a daring grand finale, swooping between Saturn's mighty rings and the surface of the planet itself to get the closest look ever at this giant world. Professor French is a science team leader on the Cassini mission and will give an insider's view of modern rocket science as this project reaches its exciting conclusion.

FACULTY LECTURE

Protection Amid Chaos: The Creation of Property Rights in Palestinian Refugee Camps

Nadya Hajj, Assistant Professor of Political Science

Pendleton East 239

This lecture humanizes refugees and describes how Palestinian refugees created order and protected themselves in chaotic conditions.

FACULTY LECTURE

Mary Cassatt, Suffrage, and Modern Women

Paul Fisher, Associate Professor of American Studies

Founders 120

Painter Mary Cassatt's feminism, subtle yet powerful, propelled her into a highly inventive and distinguished career as the one and only American in the Impressionist group. Her paintings of women, however, are particularly complex and modern, showing both her avant-garde Paris sophistication and her allegiance to women's causes such as suffrage.

FACULTY LECTURE

Traveling with Red Warriors, Water Protectors, and Prayer Riders to Wounded Knee, South Dakota

Elena Creef, Professor of Women's and Gender Studies

Founders 207

Every December, a group of Lakota men, women, and children retrace—on horseback—the trail undertaken in 1890 by Chief Big Foot and his band across 300 miles of harsh winter terrain as they fled for their lives from the U.S. Seventh Cavalry to the promised safety on the Pine Ridge Reservation. The annual Chief Big Foot Memorial Ride is ridden in honor and memory of the 350 Lakota men, women, and children who died in the massacre at Wounded Knee on December 29, 1890. This lecture chronicles Professor Creef's ethnographic research as a participant on the Big Foot Ride as an embedded women's & gender studies professor traveling by horseback, truck, and cook wagon across the Standing Rock, Cheyenne River, and Pine Ridge Lakota Sioux Reservations.

FACULTY LECTURE

What does Cosmopolitanism mean Today?

Anjali Prabhu, Professor of French, Director of the Suzy Newhouse Center for the Humanities

Collins Cinema

Cosmopolitanism suggests a single community for all human beings. How do we define that single community (through shared moral values, cultural expression or practices, or market forms?) and what does citizenship in it mean? This lecture explores some of the reasons the notion of "cosmopolitanism" is both lauded and condemned with reference to our shared world today.

FACULTY LECTURE

A Crucible for Global Leadership: The Albright Institute for Global Affairs

Joanne Murray '81, Director, Madeleine Korbel Albright Institute for Global Affairs

Founders 126

How can the liberal arts best be leveraged to educate women for global leadership? How are alumnae leading practitioners intrinsic to the Albright Institute's model? What influence does the Albright innovative model have on the fellows as they progress in their education and careers?

Wellesley's Albright Institute for Global Affairs is entering a new phase of growth and partnership. Director Joanne Murray '81 will discuss the Institute's mission and design, share the recent assessment of the Institute's strengths, as well as describe the Institute's plans for the future. Former and current Albright fellows will also discuss their experiences. Please note that Secretary Albright will not be a part of this panel.

FACULTY LECTURE

At Home and Abroad: Late Nineteenth-Century American Women Artists in Wellesley and Rome

Jacqueline Marie Musacchio '89, Professor and Chair, Art Department

Jewett Arts Center 450

This talk looks at a group of American women from the Boston area who traveled abroad to live and work in Rome; many of them had close connections with the Durants and Wellesley, and they brought their experiences back with them in a variety of ways.

4:00–5:00 PM

Friends Of Bill W.

Pendleton East 251

4:30–5:30 PM

The Wellesley Hive Networking Hour

Finding Our Center: Cultivating Calm in the Labyrinth

Tiffany Steinwert, Dean, Office of Religious and Spiritual Life

Multifaith Center, Ground Floor, Houghton Chapel

Come explore the ancient practice of the labyrinth. The labyrinth is a walking meditation. It is a path of quiet contemplation. In this workshop, you will be introduced to the labyrinth as a tool for cultivating calm in the midst of a busy and often chaotic world. The workshop will be lead by Tiffany Steinwert, dean of Religious and Spiritual Life at Wellesley College, and Rev. Dr. Lauren Artress, labyrinth master and founder and director of Veriditas. People of all religious and non-religious traditions are welcome. No experience necessary. The Labyrinth Project at Wellesley College is generously funded through a gift by Laura Becker Lewke ’77.

Seven New Worlds: The Exciting Discovery of Earth-like Planets Around a Nearby Star

Dick French, Professor of Astronomy

Jewett Arts Center 450

The Earth is no longer alone! Seven Earth-sized planets have been discovered orbiting a nearby star, several located in the so-called “habitable zone” that have the right conditions to have liquid water and oceans. These Goldilocks planets—not too hot and not too cold—may be our closest Earth-like neighbors. Is life present on these worlds? How might we tell? Are we alone in the universe? The answers might be just around the corner!

Faculty Lecture

Ancient Roman Fathers and Their Daughters: Law and Society

Ray Starr, Theodora Stone Sutton Professor of Classics

Founders 207

Ancient Roman law theoretically gave almost complete power to the father, including total economic control of his family and the right to both arrange and dissolve his children’s marriages as well as to kill his children at any age. Under Augustus, the first Roman empire, the state absorbed many of the powers of the father, raising significant questions about where different societies and cultures draw the line between public and private behavior.

Faculty Lecture

“Our Trumpushka”: On Russia’s Influence in the 2016 Election

Igor Logvinenko, Assistant Professor of Political Science

Collins Cinema

Much has been written about Russia’s meddling in the U.S. elections. What are the facts? Is Trump indeed Putin’s puppet? Should Americans be worried about increased Russian influence in American politics? Reflecting on reporting in both Russian and American press, Professor Logvinenko constructs a more nuanced picture of the events of the past year.

Faculty Lecture

The Accidental Consequences of Spikes in Gun Sales

Phil Levine, Professor of Economics

Pendleton East 239

Recent events like President Obama’s election, the Sandy Hook school shooting, and the San Bernardino attack have triggered large spikes in gun sales. In this lecture, Professor Levine will discuss his recent research (with Wellesley colleague Robin McKnight) on the impact of these spikes on firearms-related accidental deaths.

Faculty Lecture

Why Good People Do Bad Environmental Things

Beth DeSombre, Frost Professor of Environmental Studies

Founders 120

What can social science tell us about why even people with good environmental intentions do things that cause environmental harm, and what can we do about it?

THEATRE PRODUCTION: SONIA FLEW

Friday, 7:00 PM
Saturday, 2:00 PM
Sunday, 2:00 PM

Diana Chapman Walsh Alumnae Hall, Ruth Nagel Jones Theatre

Wellesley Repertory Theatre presents Sonia Flew by Melinda Lopez, directed by Lois Roach. To protect their daughter from the Communist regime, Sonia's parents sent her to the United States during the Cuban revolution and she never saw them again. Thirty years later and living in the Midwest, Sonia, a fiercely devoted mother of two, has created a home that embraces her own cultural traditions along with her husband's Jewish religion. However, after her son decides to join the army three months after 9/11, Sonia combats grief and terrifying feelings of abandonment through political forces that once again threaten to shatter her family. Set in Minneapolis in 2001 and Cuba in 1961, Sonia Flew questions parental sacrifice, familial responsibility and patriotism in times when worlds collide.

Sonia Flew won the Elliot Norton Award for "Best New Play" and the IRNE (Independent Reviewers of New England) for "Best Play" and "Best Production." It has been produced at the Huntington Theatre, Coconut Grove Playhouse, the Contemporary American Theatre Festival, Laguna Playhouse, the Summer Playwrights Festival in New York, the Milagro Theatre and the Steppenwolf Theatre.

Reservations at 781.283.2000 are absolutely needed. Tickets are $10.00 for general admission and $5.00 for senior alumnae.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE BOTANIC GARDENS

Margaret C. Ferguson Greenhouses and Wellesley College Botanic Gardens' Visitor Center Hours

Friday and Saturday, 8:00 AM–5:00 PM
Sunday, 8:00 AM–4:00 PM

The Margaret C. Ferguson Greenhouse complex is home to an encyclopedic collection of plants from a wide range of climates, representing all regions of the world. The permanent collection emphasizes the diversity and adaptations of desert plants, epiphytes and ferns, and includes large numbers of subtropical, temperate and aquatic plants. Self-guided tour information and refreshments are available in the Creighton Room at the Visitor Center.

The 22 acres of the Hunnewell Arboretum and the Alexandra Botanic Garden, open from dawn to dusk, contain over 500 species of woody plants in 53 different plant families. The collection of specimen trees and shrubs provides spectacular flowering in the spring and a range of color in the autumn.

THE WELLESLEY FUND OFFICE

Friday and Saturday, 8:30 AM–4:30 PM

The Wellesley Fund office will be open during Reunion weekend to meet with volunteers and collect gifts during the hours listed above. Alumnae can make gifts throughout the weekend in many ways: by giving your gift to a member of your class Reunion Gift Committee; by dropping your gift in a locked gift box at your class headquarters or at the Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center; by calling The Wellesley Fund Office at 800.358.3543; online at www.wellesley.edu/give; or by texting your name, class year, and the word FUND to 50555 on your cell phone to make a gift of $10. All gifts to the College will count toward class Reunion Gift totals and will also count toward The Wellesley Effect campaign.

The Wellesley Fund will also have a table conveniently located on the second floor of the Lulu Chow Wang Campus Center to answer questions and collect gifts both Friday, 1:00–4:30 PM and Saturday, 11:00 AM–3:00 PM.

A unique opportunity for intergenerational reflection and sharing: the class of 1977 will join the classes of 1947, 1942, and 1937 to explore how Wellesley women across generations can engage effectively to address the many challenges our nation and world currently face. Our conversation will provide space for a wide range of views and experiences—including the evolution of women’s leadership over the decades since the class of 1937 was at Wellesley, ways to bridge polarized positions, and both the legacy and the future of the “Wellesley Effect.”

COME TO STEPSINGING!

CELEBRATE YOUR REUNION
WITH ONE OF WELLESLEY'S
OLDEST TRADITIONS.

SUNDAY, 11:15 AM

ALUMNAE HALL AMPHITHEATER

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Wellesley College Alumnae Association (WCAA) is to support the institutional priorities of Wellesley College by connecting alumnae to the College and to each other. The Association serves as a lifelong resource to alumnae and encourages alumnae to contribute to the continued excellence of the College.

THE ASSOCIATION'S RELATIONSHIP TO THE COLLEGE

The Association is an independent, self-governing organization created by the alumnae of Wellesley College in 1880 and incorporated in 1916. It maintains substantial representation on the board of trustees of the College, with four alumnae trustees, a young alumnae trustee and the president of the Association, who serves ex officio and with vote. On administrative and programming fronts, Association volunteers and staff work closely with the Office of Admission, Career Education, Office for Resources, President's Office and other College offices.

In 1952, during the 75th Anniversary Fund campaign, the Alumnae Association board and the College Board of Trustees began to rethink the fundraising role of the Association. The decision was made to change the Association's mission, it was recognized as an independent 501(c)3 non-profit organization and, since then, all fundraising for the College has come through the Office for Resources. The Alumnae Association and the Office for Resources continue to work closely and have a strong partnership as we serve these distinct roles.

2016–2017 ANNUAL REPORT

MAJOR PROGRAMS

A Day to Make a Difference:

Hundreds of alumnae around the world take part in community service projects through their clubs and as individuals for our annual A Day to Make a Difference, which we host in partnership with Career Education. This tradition of rededication to our college motto has struck a deep chord with alumnae around the globe.

Admission:

Admission efforts are greatly supported by our alumnae clubs and individual volunteers. This past year, they conducted over 1,000 interviews, attended over 100 college fairs, and held receptions for admitted students and summer send-offs for incoming first years.

The Wellesley College Book Award Program:

The Book Award Program honors exceptional young women who have been top scholars in their high school class and have also distinguished themselves through their extracurricular activities and in their community. The award gives students a chance to learn more about Wellesley, especially if they are not already familiar with the college. This spring, 1,200 books were awarded and distributed by 60 of our U.S. alumnae clubs, 4 international clubs, and 12 individual alumnae volunteers.

Alumnae Achievement Awards:

The 2017 Alumnae Achievement Awards will be presented to Elyse Cherry '75, entrepreneur and financing and social equity activist; Kwan Kew Lai '74, infectious disease physician and disaster relief volunteer; and Lorraine O'Grady '55, avant-garde conceptual artist and literary and music critic, in a ceremony in Diana Chapman Walsh Alumnae Hall before an audience of alumnae, students, staff, faculty, and friends on October 13, 2017. All alumnae are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Alumnae Leadership Council (ALC):

ALC annually hosts class, club, shared interest group (SIG), and Reunion volunteers for training and inspiration. Attendees at ALC 2016 learned club, class, and SIG best practices and heard firsthand about current College programs, priorities and accomplishments from both students and the College's senior management.

Faculty Speaker Program:

This year, the WCAA sponsored over 45 faculty speaker programs with our clubs, enhancing our alumnae's lifelong intellectual connection to the College and their understanding of life at Wellesley today.

Memories Night:

A new tradition, Memories Night is a panel discussion with alumnae from across the decades to discuss their time at Wellesley with current students. Students relish hearing how Wellesley has changed (or not!) over the past 60 years.

My Wellesley Community:

The WCAA's online community launched in 2015: you can find it at www.alum.wellesley.edu. It's a gateway to information from your class, local club, SIG, as well as our alumnae directory. Join in discussion groups, learn about events, and maintain memberships. To take advantage of the community, activate your Wellesley Login (visit www.wellesley.edu/alumnae/wellesleylogin for more information). Once you're in the community, review your profile and make sure your information is up to date. You can also upload a photo of yourself. Your Wellesley Login will allow you to search for classmates and other alumnae in the online directory.

Reunion:

For Reunion 2017, we are excited to offer our wonderful faculty lectures and tours of campus sites. Nearly 2,500 alumnae and friends are returning to Wellesley to reminisce and be intellectually refreshed.

Senior Brunch:

Hosted by the WCAA, this brunch is the official induction of seniors into the Alumnae Association. Seniors toast fellow classmates and hear from their class-selected faculty speaker.

Stepsinging:

Twice a year students are given songbooks and assemble by classes to try to out-sing and out-cheer the other classes. Dressed in their respective class colors—red, yellow, purple, and green—students rally behind the elected songmistresses for each class.

Thanksgiving Match:

The WCAA, in partnership with Slater International, connects Wellesley students with members of the Wellesley community for Thanksgiving. The program gives students whose own families are far away a chance to get off campus, and enjoy a family setting and a home-cooked meal.

Wellesley magazine:

Our award-winning alumnae magazine continues to provide an exceptional resource to alumnae around the world as it connects us with one another and with activities at the College. It is published quarterly and is also available online at magazine.wellesley.edu. Follow us on Facebook and Twitter: @wellesleymag.

FROM THE GERMAN AIR THE MOUNTAIN MAIDEN

To Alma Mater, Wellesley's daughters,
All together join and sing,
Thro' all her wealth of wood and waters,
Let your happy voices ring

In ev'ry changing mood we love her,
Love her tow'rs and woods and lake,
Oh, changeful sky, bend blue above her!
Wake, ye birds, your chorus wake!

We'll sing her praises now and ever,
Blessed fount of truth and love,
Our heart's devotion, may it never Faithless or unworthy prove

We'll give our lives and hopes to serve her,
Humblest, highest, noblest all,
A stainless name we will preserve her,
Answer to her ev'ry call

THE WELLESLEY CHEER

Composed by:
May Sleeper Ruggles, Class of 1886

*Fast and energetically**

Tra la la la, tra la la la, tra la la la, la la la, W - E - L -

*To be sung briskly, no slower than metronome 84; there ought to be no pause before the eighth measure.
